Business Stimulation Expected by December Secretary of Treasury Dillon Thinks No Balanced Budget in Sight Till '66

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first tax cuts in President Kennedy's $13.5 billion reduction program should take effect some time this summer but not before midyear, Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said today.

"It is not reasonable to expect a law before July 1," Dillon told a news conference on the deficit-laden, $98.8 billion fiscal 1964 budget that went to Congress today. Dillon said the business-stimulating effects of the three-year tax overhaul should be felt before the end of this year, but predicted it will be 1966, at the earliest, before the nation has another balanced budget.

Will Be 1966
Dillon said the administration expects a "full employment" economy by about 1966, with increased family income and business profits generating enough tax revenues to offset fully the rate reductions. "From then on there would be surpluses," he predicted. The President's message itself

Yosman Is Praised On UR Job Saves Half Million For City: Schwenk

Mayor John J. Schwenk, in a letter dated Jan. 16, commending Alexander Yosman, executive director of the Kingston Housing Authority, for his year as advisor on urban renewal, says he is convinced that Yosman's work will mean a saving of a half million dollars, or more, to local taxpayers.

Yosman's term expires as of this date. His salary for working in an advisory capacity on downtown's Broadway East Project was $2,000 a year. He was granted another $1,000, after start of an uptown project, and received half of the latter.

The letter: "Tomorrow is your last day as the city's urban renewal advisor, and I did not want to let it pass without telling you how much your counsel and guidance has meant to me during my first year in office.

Knowledge Big Help
"When I became mayor, I knew very little more than the average citizen of Kingston about our program, and, although I had hopes that urban renewal could be expanded to help solve our urban problems, as well as those facing the downtown, the technical knowledge you have made available, your working relationships with federal and state urban renewal officials, and your grasp of the overall picture, has been invaluable to the city. I am convinced that when we go ahead with execution of our two projects plans, your suggestions will have saved the taxpayers of this city at least a half million dollars, if not more.

"Also I think I may speak for Ward Tongue (local urban renewal) (Continued on Page 14, Col. 6)

Kennedy Budget To Cost Billions In Empire State

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The budget President Kennedy submitted to Congress today will cost taxpayers in New York State $11.6 billion in federal taxes, according to the Citizens Public Expenditure Survey, and $13.2 billion, according to the Empire State Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber said its estimate of the New York share was $603 million more than the share of the current federal budget. The chamber said the new budget would cost $767.14 per New Yorker. The chamber and the Expenditure Survey, a non-profit tax research organization, apparently used different formulas in calculating the New York share of the tax load.

Experts Convene On Docks

NEW YORK (AP)—A board of labor relations experts appointed by President Kennedy goes into emergency session here today in a last-ditch effort to settle the Atlantic and Gulf coasts dock strike.

Kennedy said in appointing the board that the 26-day-old strike is "doing intolerable injury to the national welfare" and disrupting vital commerce in the Free World.

Would Go to Congress

Kennedy indicated that if the board's efforts failed, he would ask Congress to force an end to the strike of 60,000 longshoremen that has crippled shipping in ports from Maine to Texas.

The head of the board, Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., told newsmen: "I have never seen a labor case that could not be settled by good-faith negotiations between the party litigants."

Thomas Gleason, executive vice president and chief negotiator for the striking AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association, said union representatives were ready to meet with the board today.

Alexander Chopin, chief industry negotiator, said he had "nothing to say at this time." Chopin is head of the New York Shipping Association, which represents 145 shipping and stevedoring companies. Contract terms reached here between the ILA and the association traditionally set a pattern for settlements in other ports on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

Kennedy appointed the emergency board Wednesday shortly after Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz reported collapse of the negotiations.

Other Mediators

Named as mediators along with Morse were James J. Healy, associated professor of industrial relations at Harvard University, and Theodore W. Kheel, N.Y. (Continued on Page 14, Col. 6)

Wildcat Strike At Alpha Plant Off, Men Return

An attempt at a wildcat strike at Alpha Portland Cement Company, Cementon was halted early this morning and the situation was reported as normal with all men involved back to work.

A spokesman at the United Cement, Lime Gypsum Workers of America Union office in Catskill said there had been an attempt at a wildcat strike at the plant but it had been called off and all workers involved returned to their jobs.

The plant normally employs more than 250 men, most of whom are represented by Local 53 of UCLGW.

To Cut Overtime To Help Balance New York Budget

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Rockefeller administration will curb overtime credits for several categories of state employees as one of several moves to help balance the new state budget.

A new set of rules designed to reduce the amount of overtime compensation in cash or time-off credits will go into effect April 1, simultaneously with the new budget.

No extra compensation will be allowed for overtime work by department and agency heads, their principal aides, directors of branch offices, professional and technical personnel and workers whose duties "involve a high degree of personal trust."

Protest Made

The State Civil Service Employees Assn. has protested that the rules constitute an invitation to supervisors to work employees beyond the basic 40-hour week.

The change was disclosed by the CSEA as the budget director and other advisors to Gov. Rockefeller struggled to produce a pay-as-you-go budget, which will be submitted to the Legislature by the governor at the end of this month.

Levitt Will Work On Legislative Plans for Demos

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — State Comptroller Arthur Levitt will meet Tuesday with the Democratic Party's political and legislative leaders to draft a legislative program.

The meeting, which Levitt announced Wednesday, was viewed as a move by the comptroller to win a place for himself as an active leader in the party's state affairs.

Besides leaders of the Legislature's Democratic minority, the meeting will be attended by State Chairman William H. McKee and party leaders of large counties, Levitt said.

Levitt apparently is basing his bid for a position of leadership in the party on his re-election victory last November. Then, as in 1958, he was the only Democrat (Continued on Page 14, Col. 8)

Alarm Over Split Evident in Nik's East Berlin Talk

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

BERLIN (AP)—The world Communist movement is in trouble and its leaders are alarmed. The current congress of Communist leaders in East Berlin can only widen the rift between Peking and Moscow.

The alarm showed through Premier Khrushchev's major speech Wednesday. His bombast, his brandishing of nuclear might, his boasts of coming Soviet superiority, all seemed just to be window dressing.

2 Power Seats Is Worried

What frightens the Communists? It is the prospect of polarization of authority — two Communist seats of power instead of one, with the world movement ripped apart.

Even Fidel Castro, the newest addition to the ranks of Red leaders, seems to be leaning in the direction of the Chinese deviation these days. He could influence many a Latin-American Communist to do likewise.

Castro, annoyed since Khrushchev suddenly yanked away his hope for nuclear weapons in October, chose the day of Khrushchev's big speech to denounce the Communist division and issue a fiery call to revolution all over Latin America. His attitude had a Chinese sound.

Castro likely is not alone in his impatience. Khrushchev's cautious policy, while it may be good for the Soviet Union, leaves many a Communist party out on a limb, looking forward to long years of governing Soviet interests without concrete rewards. The more reckless, belligerent Chinese policy likely would suit many in the world movement much better.

But Premier Khrushchev told the Chinese Communists Wednesday that if they will not listen to his logic, they will have to go their own way. From the looks (Continued on Page 14, Col. 8)

At year's end 315,604,000,000

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy proposed today an unprecedented $98.8-billion budget keyed to deficit-reducing tax cuts which he said would spark the nation toward full employment, production and purchasing power. Kennedy's spending program for the year starting July 1 would top even the highest of wartime budgets, $98.3 billion in 1944-45, and shoot the public debt to a record $315.6 billion.

Nonetheless, he insisted it was shaped to put new life into the economy and insure "efficient and frugal" conduct of the government.

Recognizes Debt Rise

In a message sending his mid-term budget to Congress, Kennedy acknowledged the $13.5-billion, three-year tax cutting plan he unveiled earlier this week would at first add red ink to federal finances. He estimated the deficit would rise from the $8.8 billion now anticipated this year to $11.9 billion.

Recommendations Kennedy sent to Capitol Hill included: —Over-all defense spending of $55.4 billion, up $2.4 billion from the current year; emphasis on a strong retaliatory force, flexible conventional forces, better air and missile defenses.

—Space programs costing $4.2 billion, an increase of $1.8 billion; manned space flight efforts to get most of the total, with the goal of getting a man to the moon.

—Foreign aid totaling $4,945,000,000 with special attention for countries willing to help themselves.

Another Bid for Medicare —Another bid for medical care for the aged financed through Social Security taxes; a new request for a Cabinet-level Department of Urban Affairs. Detailed recommendations will be made later for aid to education, farm and other programs.

For peacetime, the anticipated $11.9-billion deficit would be second only to the $12.4 billion incurred under former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1958-59. But Kennedy argued a 1963-64 deficit is unavoidable, even at the present level of taxes. The choice, he said, lies between accepting a "chronic deficit of inertia due to inadequate economic growth" and a temporary deficit caused by programs designed to generate the economy, increase revenues and eventually achieve budget surpluses.

Calls It Investment

"The first type of deficit is a sign of waste and weakness," he argued. "The second is an investment in the future."

Kennedy forecast receipts of $86.9 billion. He offered this reasoning to conclude that reduced taxes will start producing new revenues in the year ahead:

Tax cuts taking effect in 1963—he didn't say when—would by themselves decrease government income for the fiscal year some $5.3 billion. But two factors trim the net loss from what might have been expected to $2.7 billion. These are a speedup in collection of corporation taxes, which now lag six months, and the advance in taxable income anticipated from the stimulus of a cut in rates. And despite this loss' receipts actually will increase $1.4 billion from the 1962-63 estimate of $85.5 billion because of an enhanced economy.

Holds Back Details

Thus Kennedy sought to rebut conservatives in Congress who denounce rising deficits as fiscal irresponsibility and are reluctant to cut taxes when the government ledger is in the red.

Nowhere did Kennedy name the effective date in 1963 on which he (Continued on Page 14, Col. 2)

Security Figured in Aid Abroad Asks $5 Billion To Help Nations

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy asked Congress today for nearly $5 billion in foreign aid money, declaring it would bolster U.S. security while helping nations that are willing to help themselves.

Last year he requested about the same amount and got about $1 billion less.

Drop of $100 Million

In his budget message, the President estimated that actual foreign aid expenditures for the fiscal year starting July 1 will total $3.75 billion—a drop of $100 million from the current fiscal year. The remaining $1.25 billion would be kept in reserve for aid programs on which bills do not become due this fiscal year.

The reason for the $100 million drop: a $200 million boost in economic assistance will be more than offset by a $300 million cut-back in overseas arms deliveries, which hit a peak this year.

Outright Grants Cut

Focusing on selective aid to self-helping, developing countries which can make the most use of it, Kennedy said bigger outlays for economic development loans and $1 billion for the Alliance for Progress program for Latin America will be accompanied by a decline in outright grants, or gifts.

The President's $4,945,000,000 budget requests for fiscal year 1964—$3,465,000,000 in economic aid and $1,480,000,000 in military assistance—sounded the opening gong in what is expected to be another round in the annual executive-legislative tussles over the politically unpopular program.

The message did not give a breakdown on how much any particular country will get.

Bob Hope Show Comes as Delayed Christmas Present

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The Bob Hope Christmas show, arriving about three weeks after the holiday, has become a sort of annual delayed present from television.

This year Hope and his troupe (as usual consisting primarily of pretty girls like Lana Turner, Janis Paige and Anita Bryant) journeyed from an icy outpost on the North Korean border in sight of Red patrols to the sun-baked deck of the carrier Kitty Hawk, everywhere entertaining thousands of American servicemen.

Bits and pieces from many shows were edited into an hour-long program on NBC Wednesday night.

Hope rattled off his steady stream of wisecracks "inside" GI jokes and snide comment on everything from local weather to the top brass. The boys loved it all, particularly the girls. But for the home audiences, soldiers and sailors were the real stars of the show, as the cameras showed their young laughing faces.

Hope and his friends are nice people.

This week's episode of NBC's "Don't Call Me Charlie" is the show's swansong. "The Price Is Right" moves into the spot on Feb. 1. Last programs of the network's "Saints and Sinners" and "It's a Man's World" will be Jan. 28—and then come feature movies to fill the two hour hole followed by a new Art Linkletter effort.

Preliminary reports indicate that CBS' reshuffling of its Thursday and Friday night schedules has been successful—with both "The Nurses" and "Alfred Hitchcock Hour" picking up larger audiences in their new spots.

Remains of Crew From War Bomber En Route to Burial

WASHINGTON (AP) — The remains of 11 men who died when their B25 bomber hit a mountain in New Guinea in World War II are on their way here for burial in Arlington National Cemetery.

The Army said Wednesday the burial would be held Feb. 27.

The B25 was on a ferry mission from Dobodura to Port Moresby, New Guinea, when it disappeared in February 1944.

The wreckage and the remains of the crewmen were discovered in 1961 in the Owen Stanley Mountain range.

The men included 1st Lt. Angelo C. Dellisante, whose brother, Philip Dellisante, lives in Corning, N.Y.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The same arctic air blast that has been nipping noses and ears around the country has been much harsher on some winter gardens and orchards.

The big freeze, which damaged crops last week in Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, California and Louisiana, has added to damage caused earlier by a cold spell in Florida.

Oranges may cost as much as 100 per cent more in some places. Frozen orange juice is considerably higher, as is the price of tangerines. In California, wholesale prices of lettuce have risen in some places from $2.50 a crate to $5.

Meat prices are changed only slightly from last week in most places, although one nationwide chain has jumped the price of sirloin by 20 cents to 99 cents a pound.

Roasts and steaks head the list of beef cuts on the government guide to food buys. In pork cuts, best buys are bacon, smoked hams and loin roasts.

Among the better lamb buys, the shopper will find chops and roasts.

The Departments of Agriculture and Interior list good supplies of broccoli, cabbage, carrots, celery, lettuce, onions, potatoes, sweet potatoes, turnips and turnip greens.

Best fruit buys include apples, avocados, grapes and winter pears.

In short supply, perhaps in some areas will be grapes, melons, bananas and other fruits from Latin America—a direct result of the dock strike.

Gomulka Supports K In Split With China

BERLIN (AP)—Polish Communist chief Wladyslaw Gomulka gave full support today to Soviet Premier Khrushchev in the Moscow-Peking dispute over Communist policy. But Gomulka asked that the argument be removed from the world's gaze.

Gomulka told the East German Communist party's sixth congress in East Berlin that Khrushchev is calling the tune correctly for the world Communist movement. "The Soviet Union is the most important, most decisive force in the Socialist camp," Gomulka said.

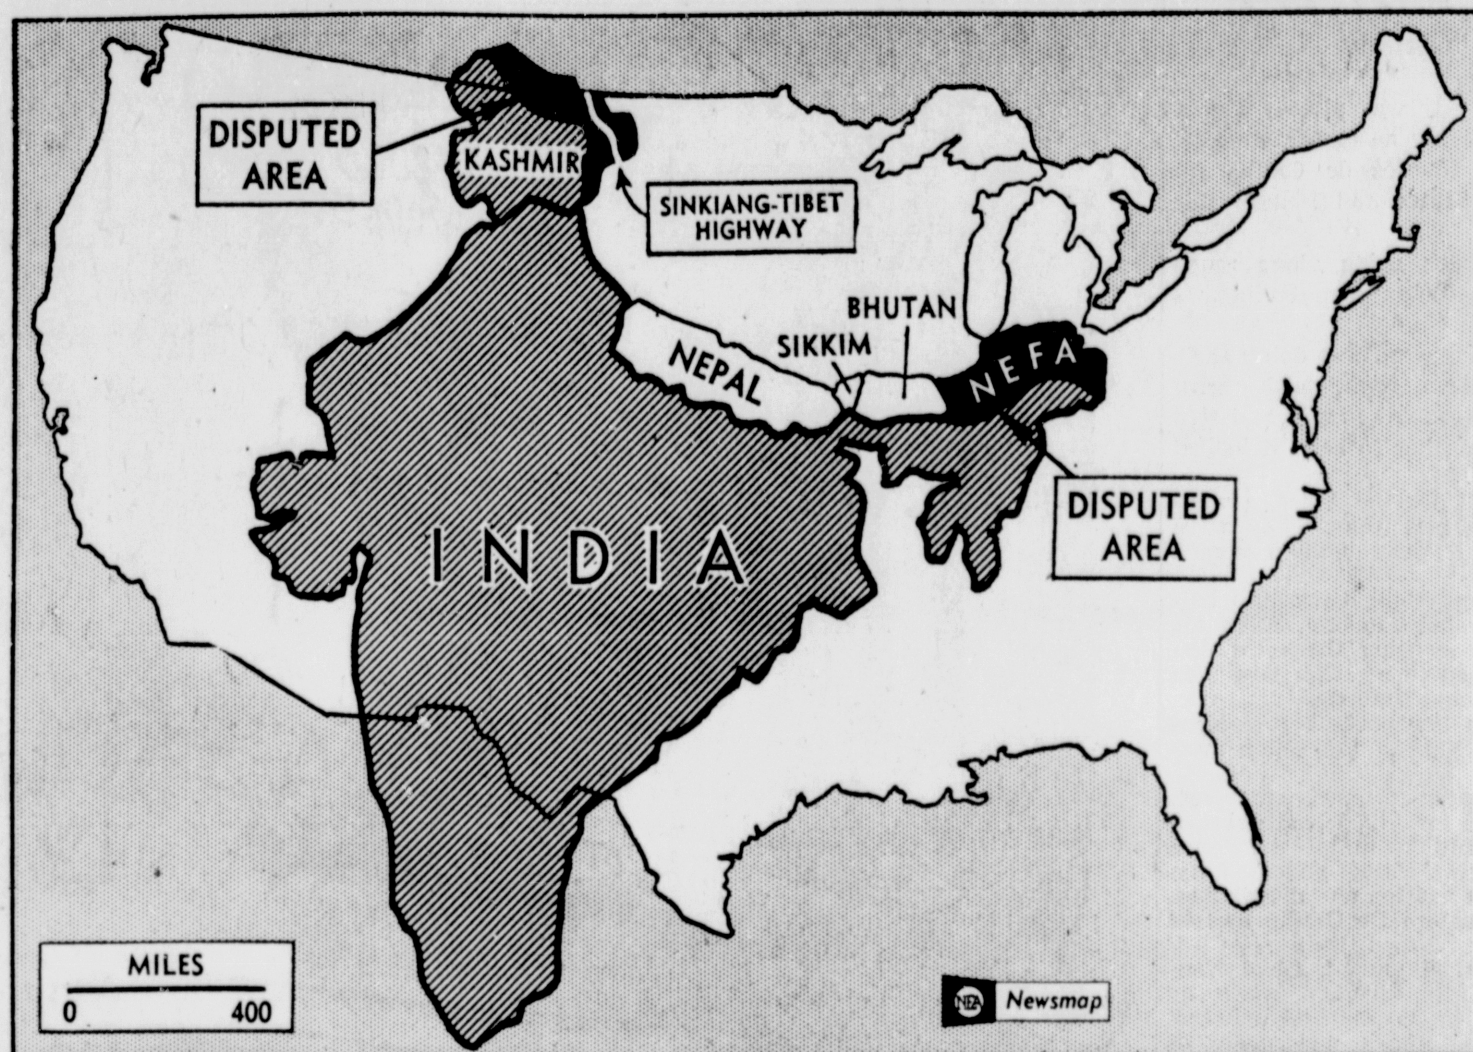

He echoed Khrushchev's call Wednesday for the Chinese to stop their public name-calling. "The differing opinions within the Communist world movement should be cleared up without public polemics through internal discussions," Gomulka said.

Gomulka's speech was reported by ADN, the official East German news agency. As far as could be determined only one Western correspondent, reporting for a British news agency, was allowed to attend today's congress session in the Werner Seelenbinder Sports Palace.

Other Western correspondents had been admitted to the congress on its first two days and the proceedings were televised. East German party chief Walter Ulbricht and Khrushchev spoke on those days.

FAR-FLUNG DISPUTE—Vast distances involved in the India-China border dispute are revealed when India is superimposed on a map of the U.S. Though India has vowed to regain all the dark shaded territory, reports from Peking and New Delhi indicate a peaceful solution may be in the offing. According to the reports, China would withdraw permanently behind the McMahon Line in the east, the northern border of NEFA (India's North East Frontier Agency), giving up about 2,000 square miles seized during the fall offensive. The border in Kashmir would be restored to its status of September 1962, but the Chinese would retain a 12,000-square-mile area in which they have built a highway connecting the provinces of Sinkiang and Tibet.

Denies California GOP Rigging for '64 Liberal Push

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Factional strife in California's Republican Party erupted again Wednesday night with charges that state Central Committee Caspar Weinberger is rigging the state for a liberal push in 1964.

Weinberger denied the charges, made in Arcadia, Calif., a Los Angeles suburb, by former State Assemblyman Bruce Reagan who said:

California GOP leaders, including former Vice President Richard Nixon, are setting up now to back New York Gov. Rockefeller as the GOP presidential standard bearer in 1964.

The liberal wing of the GOP controls the party in California. Weinberger called the charges "absolutely false." He said "it is too early now to back anyone for 1964."

William Ryan and Duncan Greene were elected delegates to the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association, and L. E. Dunne was named delegate for the fire fund.

Elected company chaplains were the Rev. William E. Williams, of St. Joseph's Church, and the Rev. Kenneth Hinds, pastor of Holy Cross Church.

Service Spans Century

Wiltwyck Hose Co. has faithfully served the City of Kingston more than a century, and the membership is honored with many names of prominence, both in business and social circles. The city at one time had only volunteer fire protection, thus business men were active in the fire department and displayed Democracy in action.

Today the company operates an emergency vehicle located on Joy's Lane, and is still an active and responsible part of the Kingston Fire Department. The emergency vehicle was purchased by Wiltwyck and presented to the City of Kingston in 1957, and has been manned and operated by volunteer firemen from the company since that date.

EDUCATIONAL SHIFT

The manifesto uttered by Dr. Max Rafferty when he took over as California school superintendent seems likely to have a powerful impact on public education throughout the country. For here we have the head of the public schools in a giant state taking a roundhouse swing at what is popularly called "progressive education."

Dr. Rafferty left no doubt that he proposes fundamental changes—"nothing less," as he put it, "than the philosophical educational reorientation of the greatest state in the union." He came out strongly for greater emphasis on course content rather than on methods of teaching. He said that he intended to get California public schools "out of the life adjustment, pragmatic rut," and declared that "the schools exist to teach organized and disciplined subjects."

Some educators will hail this as a bold trumpeting of the need for basic reforms in public education. Others will consider it a retrogression toward older, hidebound methods that do not adequately consider the wide range in public abilities and needs that is inherent in a system of universal education.

Perhaps it seems like evasion to say that the truth lies somewhere between these conflicting views. Yet that is an accurate, not an evasive, statement. There is no simple, all-inclusive educational philosophy that meets every school need. Experimentation must go on continually; educators cannot fulfill their responsibility without being willing to consider and in many cases try new ideas, without shunting aside old ideas that have stood the tests.

California's new superintendent of public instruction proposes what appear to be substantial changes in how the state educates its children. What is done will be watched with lively interest by educators throughout the nation.

The new Russian ambassador to the United Nations calls for peace. If that was all that was needed, we'd have had peace long ago.

ITEMIZED JUNKETING

A bill which would force members of Congress to make a detailed accounting of how they spend public money when traveling ostensibly in the public interest has been introduced in the House again this year. Ordinary citizens may be forgiven for concluding that this would be an appropriate time for passage of such legislation.

That conclusion is bolstered by the fact that this is the year when, on congressional authority, the Internal Revenue Service begins its crackdown on expense account deductions. The IRS is going to be a lot more picky than in the past about exactly how expense account money was spent; it is going to require more itemizing and less generalizing.

This is exactly what the proposed legislation would require of members of Congress when they go a-junketing. At present they are able to hide a lot of their outlay behind that convenient facade known as "miscellaneous." Congress feels that lumping together a lot of expenditures and claiming a tax deduction has deprived the government of much revenue. It should apply the same reasoning to its own system of accounting for public money spent on travel.

TV'S KING CONFORMITY

The television viewer is the one who chiefly suffers from a rating system that tends to push TV programs into molds of conformity. When those responsible for programming do so with one eye always on the ratings, there is bound to be a strong trend toward conformity. And where conformity is king, excellence gets short shrift.

The situation becomes even worse if the rating system, instead of being a precise reflection of popular wishes, is subject to

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was almost like a return to normal, after being away for a while, when French President Charles de Gaulle rebuffed both the United States and Britain this week.

The year 1963 had been going along much too quietly to give anybody an easy feeling. It wasn't natural.

Besides, while the Allies were just doing their usual mulling and muddling around with themselves, their two big antagonists, Russia and Red China, were abusing each other so hard it looked like a split.

This was a switch and, for the Allies, a wonderful way to start the new year. They were sitting back and enjoying it, most of them seemed relaxed.

But De Gaulle put everything back into balance at his news conference Monday. Even his timing was excellent for causing the most discomfort to anyone inclined to mention how nice things were, like President Kennedy.

He sounded off just a few hours before Kennedy was to deliver his State of the Union message to Congress.

It was a heart-warming Kennedy message, too, for those who longed for Allied brotherliness and would have been content to let the Communists monopolize both harshness and disunity. The message had been written and distributed, although not delivered, before De Gaulle messed things up.

"How fares the grand alliance?" asked Kennedy rhetorically, blissfully unaware when he wrote the lines of what De Gaulle had in mind. "Free Europe is entering into a new phase of its long and brilliant history."

He said: "A new phase of inter-dependence and unity is taking shape."

"Defying the old prophecies of Marx, consenting to what no conqueror could ever compel, the free nations of Europe are moving toward a unity of purpose and power and policy in every sphere of activity."

Besides, if De Gaulle hadn't butted in before Kennedy could make his speech, the President would have had almost exclusive attention around the world. Nothing much else was happening that day, or so it seemed.

De Gaulle did two things by making his jarring pronouncements just a few hours before Kennedy spoke.

1. He forced the President to share the headlines with him and in some places, no doubt, took them away from him completely.

2. He put some of the Kennedy statements—particularly the business about unity—way out of focus.

W. C. Fields never stole a scene better.

The British have been trying to work out arrangements to get into the European Common Market with France and other allies. But De Gaulle said the British didn't fit the bill for getting into the market—yet.

He indicated that if they're nice boys and make concessions to him, he might agree to letting them in. This was a little trying for the British to endure.

And Tuesday five of the other European nations in the trading bloc rallied behind Britain against the threat of a blackball from De Gaulle against the British.

The five were West Germany, with whom De Gaulle seemed to feel an unusual closeness, and Italy, Belgium, Holland and little Luxembourg.

This wasn't all De Gaulle did. He said France will not join the British-American agreement made at Nassau late last year to establish a multinational Polaris missile force.

He said France would build its own atomic force. But here it was learned Kennedy intends to push ahead toward an Allied atomic force. De Gaulle has been a naughty problem before. He's a worse one now.

Fight Severe Infection With Proper Nutrition

All infectious diseases, even tonsillitis and small skin abscesses, have been found to cause the body to lose nitrogen. This element exists in every living cell and is supplied only by the protein in our diets. An infection that is mild in a well-nourished person may be severe or even fatal in one who is poorly nourished. This is commonly seen in epidemics which always take their heaviest toll among the undernourished.

When infection causes a loss of body nitrogen this takes place chiefly through the kidneys but, if the infection is complicated by a severe diarrhea, the proteins are swept through the digestive tract undigested and this further depletes the body's store of essential nitrogen. Add to this the loss of appetite that so often attends a fever or diarrhea and the body's chemistry takes a real beating.

Some misguided housewives, when feeding a person who is sick in bed with an infection, give the patient a diet that is high in starch and sugar but poor in protein. This may result in a serious protein deficiency and a greatly delayed convalescence.

Even though a child has diarrhea it is unwise to cut down on essential nutrients because what little is absorbed from the bowel into the blood may make the difference between recovery and death.

Although carbohydrate in the form of a simple sugar is stored in the liver and fat is stored in the deep layers of the skin and other so-called fat depots, the body has no comparable way of storing protein. In addition to a loss of protein, infection is accompanied by a loss of vitamins.

Although I do not advocate a person in good health getting his vitamins out of a bottle, multi-vitamin tablets may have a definite place in keeping up the nutrition of a person who has an acute infection.

When the body becomes run-down due to malnutrition, a vicious cycle is established. Not only does the infection lead to poor nutrition but poor nutrition interferes with the body's ability to build up an immunity and throw off the infection.

More specifically, it interferes with the building up of antibodies that kill the disease germs or neutralize their poisons and with the production of the white blood cells that attack germs and other foreign bodies in the blood.

Such diseases as those due to vitamin deficiency or diabetes, which is an interference with the body's ability to use the sugar in the blood, render the victim more likely to develop an infection.

considerable error. It becomes worse yet if the degree of accuracy is misrepresented.

This appears to be the case. The Federal Trade Commission has cracked down on the three best known TV rating systems, charging misrepresentation and a built-in tendency to err. The fact that the companies have agreed to discontinue certain practices indicates that the FTC is not far off the mark.

The basic problem will continue to be, not faulty reporting of audience reactions, but the excessive weight given the ratings by television executives. If popularity is the main criterion, quality is bound to suffer.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

Soviet Russia's next move in its power politics chess game against the rest of the world is now being played by Chairman Khrushchev at the East German Communist Party Congress.

The play may be against the West's defensive pawns in Berlin.

KHRUSHCHEV'S LAST move on the international board was his speech before the Supreme Soviet in Moscow Dec. 12. The nearly 20,000-word text of this tirade is now being given a line-by-line study by John Hopkins University, under a State Department contract. Sought are clues to any shift from Khrushchev's major foreign policy speech of January 1961. First reports show little change.

"We not only reject a world thermonuclear war," says Khrushchev in his most recent major pronouncement, "but in general, all wars between states, with the exception of a just liberation war and a defensive war which people subjected to aggression are forced to wage."

Several things have happened in the past two years to cause Soviet Russia to change its strategy and tactics. First is the Cuba crisis. Second, the Sino-Indian border war. Third, the growing dissensions inside Russia and in the whole Communist bloc.

Consider first the possible effect of Cuban developments on the Berlin issue. As one observer puts it, "Khrushchev in his Dec. 12 speech, tries to clean the Cuban scrambled egg off his vest."

He had previously pledged to support the Cuban war of liberation and other such wars that might develop in Latin America. He put his planes, missiles and men in Cuba for this purpose. Yet he withdrew in the face of aroused American opposition.

Was this a Communist retreat?

KHRUSHCHEV WORKS hard in his December speech to convince the Soviets that it was not. He argues that this action was taken to prevent a major war being threatened by the United States. Khrushchev argues in his twisted logic that this proves the U.S.S.R. is a peace-loving state wanting peaceful coexistence.

Khrushchev relates this to the German situation in several scattered paragraphs.

"Let us say this about the conclusion of a German peace treaty," says the Russian chairman at one point. "Let us imagine that the American militaryists and those critics who urge them on, such as (West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer), who assert that firmness is bringing the West dividends and therefore it is necessary to adopt an even more rigid position."

"One can say to such people: Maybe you think that under such pressure we will undertake to withdraw rockets from the Soviet Union or that we shall be scared by the threat of being bombed."

"I tell you straight, gentlemen, if you build your policy on such calculations as this, you will make a big mistake. You will not remove from the agenda urgent international questions, including the question of a German peace settlement, by such methods."

"If one starts out along such a road of solving questions of dispute from a position of strength, then this could cause a really catastrophic world war."

The main controversial issue remains that of the presence of troops in West Berlin. The Soviet Union proposes that the troops situated in West Berlin should not represent the NATO countries, that the NATO flag in West Berlin be replaced by that of the United Nations, and that the United Nations should take upon itself specific international undertakings and functions there."

THIS IS NOT A NEW proposal from the Russians. But its re-emphasis at this time is interesting for several reasons. It is based on a false assumption that the NATO flag flies in Berlin. The flags of the United States, Britain and France fly in Berlin as postwar occupying powers.

This is what Khrushchev really wants to end, by bluff or by threat of force. Khrushchev's proposal that the United Nations provide the peace-keeping machinery, in West Berlin is considered a phony. To prove it, Russia's refusal to support, financially or morally, U.N. peace forces on the Arab-Israeli front or in the Congo is cited.

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

I received a nice letter from Vernon Beatty of Stone Ridge. He has been the superintendent of the Beechford Farms at Coldbrook. It was owned by Harry Bailey. They had some 12 to 1,400 acres of dairy land and place for their Gurnsey cows. He told me about the Hellmanns, of the mayonnaise fame who had a farm near there, and also J. O. Winston, who was near Saugerties, and these men were all friends. McArthur and Winston were the builders of the Ashokan Dam. Mr. Winston was a southern gentleman. I remember Mr. Winston when he lived on Clinton Avenue and he would meet me on the sidewalk, make room for me to pass, and take off his hat and bow. It was quite a formality, and I always enjoyed speaking to him.

Mr. Beatty also told me the owners of the Beechford Farms spent their winters in New York City but the work on the farm went on just the same, till around 1941, when it was sold after Mr. Bailey's death. They had their own ice house, cut their own ice and put it away with straw and salt to use all summer for their milk and other products. Mr. Bailey, it seems was in the ice industry in New York City, had it cut from the Hudson River, and for a long time after refrigeration came in by electricity he did not give in to it at his farm, because it had practically put him out of the ice industry in New York City. Mr. Beatty wrote me about the switch for the stone quarry that ran in the flat of the Jim Joyce farm, which the late Harry Bailey of Beechford Farms leased. Mr. Joyce was at one time the Cold Brook station agent.

Mr. Beatty remembers the

U. S. Steel Chairman Says Kennedy Gives Only One Side

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Fair play is always extolled as a virtue in a Democratic system, but it is regrettably true that, in public controversies, the American people often get only one side of the story.

If, for instance, public-opinion polls were taken today, a large number of those interviewed would answer that the steel companies in April 1962 were not acting in "good faith" with President Kennedy when steel prices were raised. Mr. Kennedy, as recently as December 17, repeated his charge of bad faith and said he would do everything he did last April all over again.

But will the millions of people who heard those statements over television and radio ever get the other side? This week Roger Blough, chairman of the U. S. Steel Corporation, in an interview in "Look" Magazine, tells his side of the story for the first time. Some general statements have been made before by the steel company official, but there has been no such spirited and explicit rebuttal. It is believed that the reason for the new pronouncement is the fact that, on December 17, the President—in a radio and television interview over all three national networks, before an estimated 21 million viewers—made again the same charge of lack of good faith which he made last April.

Flat Contradictions

Mr. Blough flatly contradicts the President's charges of bad faith. He says that, while he holds no animosity toward President Kennedy, there are certain "misconceptions" he wants to refute—among them, the following:

"That I purposely lulled President Kennedy into the false impression that U. S. Steel would not raise prices, and then raised them—which is absolutely contrary to the facts."

"That my personal call on the President to inform him of the price rise last April 10 was a calculated affront. Again, this is completely opposite to the truth."

"That U. S. Steel did not need a price rise—entirely untrue—and that our move had political overtones—equally untrue."

Mr. Blough says that the price increase would not have hurt and, indeed, would have helped the American economy. He adds:

"And I am convinced that pricing by political pressure, rather than pricing by the forces exerted in a free competitive market, weakens the industrial strength upon which America's very survival may depend in time of crisis."

Mr. Blough recalls that, when the President telephoned the negotiators on both sides on the last day of March, congratulating them on the contract, Mr. Kennedy included this remark: "It is obviously noninflationary and should provide a solid base for continued price stability."

The U. S. Steel chairman says this remark troubled him at the time, since he had repeatedly told the President that "cost increases were basically the cause of this nation's recent inflation and that a price rise was long overdue U. S. Steel." Mr. Blough recalls that he had been quoted in newspapers and magazines in the same vein on several occasions before last April.

Done to Court Labor

Mr. Kennedy nevertheless made "what was probably the strongest attack on a private industry ever made by a President." The Steel chairman then adds:

"In retrospect, I believe that at least part of President Kennedy's vehement public reaction to the news of Steel's price increase was not really because he expected a nationwide inflationary spiral to result from it—but because he had been hoping for a steel-price status quo for reasons involving his relations with labor. His earlier stand against a 35-hour work week had displeased the labor union. I believe that he and Secretary Goldberg felt that an increase in steel prices, following the early wage negotiations, would be viewed as evidence that the administration's policies were adverse to labor's interest."

Mr. Blough insists that the American consumer would hardly have noticed the price change, as it was only three-tenths of a cent per pound. He notes that the steel going into an electric toaster would have cost only three cents more, in an automobile only $10.64 more, and in a washing machine only an added 35 cents. But the Steel chairman points out it would have helped to meet wage and other costs, which had risen by six per cent since 1959 without any increase in prices.

Duty to Protect All

Discussing the "public interest," a phrase often used at the time of the Steel controversy, Mr. Blough says it is the duty of the government to protect the lawful interests of every body and "to insure that force and coercion do not intrude upon those interests, and to guarantee that each individual not intrude upon the lawful interests of others." He concludes:

"Viewed in this light, I do not think it in the public interest in peacetime for anyone, including those of presidential rank, to substitute his own action for the action of the marketplace by trying to set prices for any competitive products."

Mr. Blough emphasizes the need for mutual confidence between the government and industry, and points to the duty of the government to protect the heavy losses in stock-market values that followed the controversy.

All this was an experience unique in American history, and it is important that the public should have "the other side" in view of the heavy publicity advantage enjoyed a President of the United States.

Negro Youth Is Identified as Slayer of Girl

BOSTON (AP)—Police Commissioner Edmund L. McNamara said today a 15-year-old boy has been identified as the slayer of a 16-year-old Roxbury girl on Jan. 5.

McNamara said the Negro youth was one of four questioned at headquarters for several hours. He said the youth will be arraigned in Roxbury District Court on a charge of being a delinquent child.

McNamara said the accused youth has denied any connection with the slaying.

The commissioner said the boy who identified the accused youth admitted being in the alley when the girl was slain.

The body of Danielle Saunders was found in an alley not far from her home in the Roxbury District the night of Jan. 5.

She was the ninth female strangling victim in Greater Boston in the past seven months. None of the slayings has been solved.

A popular high school junior, Miss Saunders was born in Munich, Germany. She was the daughter of an American Negro Army veteran and a German war bride.

Police have said they doubt there was any connection between the slaying of Miss Saunders and those of the other women.

After examining the girl's body, Medical Examiner Richard Ford said the girl had not been sexually abused. Neither was there any evidence of robbery.

The fighting in the remote borderlands of the high Himalayas directly involves 40 per cent of the world population. One out of every four members of the human race lives in Communist China; one out of seven lives in India.

L.I. Area Rocked By Explosions

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP) — A series of explosions blew a magazine plant into bits and shook three Long Island villages today. People were thrown out of bed, and lights suddenly flashed on in homes in the New York City suburban area with a population of about 80,000.

Ninety families were evacuated from two apartment houses temporarily.

Police said the seven explosions — of ever-increasing intensity — were in fuel oil tanks in the basement of the one-story brick magazine plant.

Officials had no immediate conjecture on the cause of the blasts at the plant of the Direct Mail Advertising Reporter, a nationally circulated monthly publication, at 224 7th St., Garden City.

No one was believed to have been in the magazine plant, and no injuries were reported.

Fire followed the explosions. Firemen got the blaze under control in a short time.

Patient Prank

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—A Des Moines surgeon, about to operate, saw painted on the patient's abdomen the word "THINK."

Measured Hospitality

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Many large homes in early Kentucky had a vagrant's chamber where strangers could stay overnight.

The residents did not wish to turn away a stranger—but also did not want to give him access to the entire house.

Thus, the vagrant's chamber was designed with a separate entrance and no doorway to the rest of the home.

Appeal to Wind Up Chicago Meeting On Church, Race

CHICAGO (AP) —The National Conference on Religion and Race moved toward adjournment today with conferees preparing to adopt "an appeal to the conscience of the American people."

The appeal will wind up four days of deliberation by 650 Jewish, Protestant and Roman Catholic leaders centering on the failure of religion to aid racial integration.

It appeared that the preliminary draft would be adopted substantially as submitted, but it was open for amendment.

The preliminary draft termed racism the nation's most serious domestic problem. It called upon Americans to work for justice in voting rights, equal protection of the law, access to public facilities and private ones serving a public purpose and in education and cultural opportunities, hiring and promotion, medical and hospital care and housing opportunities.

Philly Without Transit 3rd Day

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A crippling transit strike entered its third day today amid accusations that union and management had pressured the city to withdraw opposition to a fare increase.

More than half a million riders have been without their usual means of transportation since 12:01 a.m. Tuesday when the Transport Workers Union closed down the Philadelphia Transportation Co. system in a contract dispute.

The strike has stalled all buses, trolleys and subways that operate exclusively within the city.

With the efforts of federal mediators proving fruitless so far, Mayor James H. J. Tate went before a press conference Wednesday to accuse the company of back door tactics in trying to force a fare increase.

He said company attorneys had sought to get the city to withdraw its opposition to a two-cent hike already on file with the state Public Utility Commission. Then, he said, they wanted leave to file for a second increase in May.

Present fares are 23 cents cash or five tokens for $1.05.

Major issues in the strike are union demands for higher wages and continuation of a no layoff clause.

The TWU, whose Local 234 represents about 5,600 PTC employees, wants a three-year contract providing a cash raise of 38 cents an hour and a reduction in the work week from 40 to 35 hours. Current rates range from $2.25 to $2.75 an hour.

The union insists on the no-layoff clause. Without it, it says, one third of present employees will lose their jobs in the next year.

State Thaws Out As Temperatures Rise 29 Degrees

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) —Most of New York State thawed out a bit today, and overnight low temperatures were as much as 29 degrees higher than the arctic readings of yesterday morning.

The official Kingston reading at the City Engineer's Office was 19, eight degrees higher than the overnight low of yesterday. Low spots in the Town of Saugerties reported Wednesday recorded unofficial readings of from 10 to 15 above zero early today.

Watertown's low climbed from -16 to 13 above, Massena's from -15 to 9 above and Buffalo's from -9 to 15 above.

The Weather Bureau had predicted today would be about as cold as Wednesday. Changes in clouds and wind made the difference, the bureau said today.

Friday is expected to be a little warmer. Snow may develop in western New York and east of Lake Ontario, the bureau said. Otherwise, the outlook is for partly cloudy skies and scattered flurries. Four inches of snow had fallen since Wednesday morning at Watertown, off Lake Ontario. No snow of consequence was reported elsewhere.

The bureau reported these other overnight low temperatures: Glens Falls 0; Plattsburgh 2 above; Albany and Syracuse 7; Utica 9; Rome and Oneonta 10; Poughkeepsie 11; Rochester 14; Olean and Newburgh 15; Binghamton and Westhampton Beach 16; LaGuardia Airport 28.

Along Capitol Corridors

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller's committee to plan a science center will join a growing legion of state agencies swarming over the State University with plans and ideas for the destiny of that troubled institution of higher education.

Whether there are "too many cooks" participating in the operation of the university is a matter of dispute.

Target Year Is '70

Rockefeller has said he has no concern on that score. But the splintering of university functions has been cited in some quarters as one reason the school cannot attract and retain a top-notch president.

The university, which comprises 51 units scattered across the state, is now without a president during one of its most critical times.

A $700-million expansion plan, in which the full-time enrollment is being tripled to 150,000 students, is under way. The target year for completion is 1970.

The Board of Trustees of the State University is the official governing body.

But it has a good deal of help, not all of it entirely welcome.

The Board of Regents, governing body of all education in the state, prodded the trustees this month to make up their minds on whether to adopt a uniform tuition policy.

One major financial concern, the expansion program, is in the hands of another agency, the State University Construction Fund.

The Legislature gave that agency authority last year to cut through red tape and speed construction of buildings on campus es throughout the state. The Fund also was charged with raising the money for the expansion. It has not announced how it intends to do so.

Many Helping Hands

The Dormitory Authority constructs dormitories and dining halls at schools of the university.

The governor's office has a major voice in the expansion program. Rockefeller announced last week he would name a committee that will begin drafting plans for a multi-million-dollar science and research center to rival the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The decision apparently was made by the governor without reference to the Board of Trustees.

The Legislature also has a hand in the university through control of appropriations and through intervention by individual members on behalf of home-town schools that are part of the university.

While time and money may be in short supply in the job of expanding the State University, there seems to be no shortage of helping hands.

LITTLE LIZ

Middle age is when your tripping is less light and more fantastic.

3 Speed Zones Established by Traffic Control

Three speed zones, one each in the Towns of Lloyd and Ulster, and the Hamlet of Tillson, were established by the State Traffic Commission, it was announced today in orders filed with the Secretary of State's Office.

A zone restricting speed to 35 miles-per-hour was established in Tillson on the Springtown Road between Rosendale Village line and a point .4 miles south of Tillson Road.

In the Town of Lloyd a 25

MPH zone was established on the grounds of the State Training School for Boys, Highland. A 30 MPH speed restriction was established on Plainfield Street, between Stahlman Place and Harwich Street in the Town of Ulster.

No Work Remained

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Kentucky Unemployment Compensation Commission was sorting through a number of job applications when it came across this one.

The applicant had been asked why he left his previous job. "Done all the work," was the answer written down.

Incredible: Dirksen

GOP Blisters JFK's Budget; Demos Alarmed

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's budget sailed into stormy congressional seas today. There was a clamor that unless some spending was jettisoned, its cargo of tax cuts would never reach port intact.

Much of a chorus of alarm about the budget's deficit—practically drowning out other comment—came from Democrats, with Republicans adding their denunciations.

"Incredible," "Ridiculous," "Entirely too big," were some of the harsher comments of critics.

Will Hurt Tax Proposal

Many argued that the estimated $11.9-billion deficit would badly hurt the President's tax reduction proposals.

GOP leaders generally gave the budget a blistering reception.

Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, House Republican leader, said the $98.8-billion budget "makes a mockery of the administration's brave talk of letting the taxpayer keep more of his own money."

"What the taxpayer thinks he will save (under Kennedy's proposed reduction) will be taken away from him either by so-called tax reform or by an increase in the cost of living," he added.

"Either way, the taxpayer looks like a sure loser in the end."

The GOP Senate Leader, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, called the budget incredible.

"We are told the New Frontier is going to get over its chronic deficits by having a deficit so big that the nation will enjoy rapid growth and the jobless will commence returning to work. In other words, the best way to correct mistakes is to make bigger ones."

Nor did many key Democrats express warm regard for the spending plans.

Too Big: Cannon

"Entirely too big," remarked Rep. Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., chairman of the House Appropriations Committee which handles all spending bills. "We will look for and find places to cut it substantially without impairing national security."

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, forecast a $14-billion deficit if the President's tax cut proposals are adopted by Congress. He said spending would exceed $100 billion.

Chairman Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., of the Senate Appropriations Committee, begged off commenting until he had a chance to study the President's recommendations.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark.,

Falls Project Offered

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—A multi-million-dollar proposal for development of a commercial-tourist center near the famed American Falls was presented today to city officials.

The project, planned by a group of private investors, would be built in an eight-block business area opposite Prospect Park and its giant observation tower. Present buildings would be demolished.

The cost was not announced.

Central Asks $975,000

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Central Railroad filed today a $975,000 suit against the United States government for damage done to the railroad's facilities at West Point when large quantities of fill material collapsed into the Hudson River Aug. 25, 1961.

The federal court suit said railroad property at the U.S. Military Academy was severely damaged.

Begins Bay State Job

BOSTON (AP) — Edward W. Brooke began his first full day today as attorney general of Massachusetts.

He is the first Negro elected to attorney general in any state.

The only Republican elected to statewide office in Massachusetts in 1962, Brooke took the oath of office Wednesday.

chairman of Senate Foreign Relations Committee: "My first impression is that the over-all budget—especially for defense—seems extraordinarily high. This fiscal situation is a very serious one, and it is going to require a great deal of study."

Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., begged off commenting until he had a chance to study the President's recommendations.

George Rusk Is New President of Kingston Trust

At the annual meeting of the Kingston Trust Company held Wednesday at the banking house, 27 Main Street, George Rusk was elected president, succeeding Ernest LeFevre, who was named vice-president.

Arthur A. Davis, was re-elected chairman of the board. Kenneth C. Pratt, who had served as a vice president, was elected executive vice president. Fred P. Carpenter, who has served as treasurer, was named vice president and treasurer.

Other Officers

Other officers elected are: Vernon S. Miller and William C. Mulhern, vice presidents; Walter L. Foster, Harry E. Miller, John T. Molloy and Joseph W. Robertson, vice presidents; Frank Finley, William J. Fitzgibbon, Walter K. Hubbard, William J. Lawrence, George D. Reisenauer and William A. Thiel, assistant treasurers; Maude D. Snyder, secretary; Margaret Smith, assistant secretary; Gordon A. Craig, auditor; Ellis H. Griffith, trust officer; and Rusk, Rusk and Feeney, counsel.

Members of the board of directors are: Adelbert H. Chambers, Arthur A. Davis, Bernard A. Feeney, Conrad J. Gross, Stephen D. Hillebrand, Arthur V. Hornbeck, Dr. Joseph J. Jacobson, Ernest LeFevre, Alfred D. Ronder, George Rusk, Terry Staples and Richard J. Whalen.

Over 27 Million Resources

A financial statement shows the total resources as of December 31, 1962, to be $27,806,844.66.

Probe Is Pressed Of Po'keepsie Fires

Poughkeepsie fire and police officials today pressed an intensive investigation in an effort to uncover clues that might support their suspicion that three recent major fires in the city might have been the work of an arsonist.

Fire Chief Irving Merrick and Police Chief John L. Martin have conferred with Dutchess County District Attorney Raymond C. Baratta, who offered "all available means at my command" to investigators to determine how the three fires originated.

A two-alarm fire early Wednesday destroyed the former Columbus School in lower Church Street, Poughkeepsie. The building was occupied by John R. Lindmark, nationally known collector of rare books, who estimated the value of the books at more than a million dollars.

A three-alarm fire early last Saturday destroyed four stores in lower Main Street, and late Monday night a triple-alarm fire destroyed a 2½-story building at 52 Market Street and threatened the law library building next door.

Chief Merrick said that investigators are working on the theory that a "firebug" may be operating in the city of Poughkeepsie. The three fires occurred within a half mile of each other.

Deposits total $24,132,559.28. The bank's surplus is listed at $1,950,000, with undivided profits listed at $180,000, and reserve for contingencies $25,000. Other reserves amount to $345,282.83.

In addition to the main banking house at Main and Fair Streets, the Kingston Trust Company has its Central Branch at Broadway and Dederick Street, and a branch at Phoenicia.

George Kernochan, 65, of 55 Wilson Avenue, secretary of the Kingston Rotary Club, collapsed and died Wednesday while leading the club's singing at the weekly meeting in Governor Clinton Hotel.

Three physicians, Drs. John A. Cooke, Elbert F. MacFadden and Kuken V. Kirk, who were present at the meeting, administered to him, but their efforts to revive him failed. He was pronounced dead shortly after being stricken.

Melvin Mones, club president, adjourned the meeting immediately. Prayers were offered by the Rev. Roy C. Hassel, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, and the Rev. Edwin C. Coon, pastor of the Fair Street Reformed Church, both Rotarians.

Would Spare Wood's Life

Clemency Move Is Studied by Rocky

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller had before him today a request that he spare the life of Frederick Charles Wood, who is scheduled for execution next week for two murders.

The lawyers who presented Wood's plea for clemency Wednesday, based it on the contention that he was insane and on a split decision of an appeals court that upheld his conviction.

Two 1960 Slayings

Wood, 51, was sentenced to die in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair for the 1960 slaying of two elderly men in Queens.

The murders touched off a furor over state parole procedures, since Wood had been released from prison only five weeks prior to the slayings after serving 17 years for a killing in Elmira in 1942.

Wood's attorneys, Edward H. Potter of Queens and Abraham Schwartz, said psychiatric opinion on Wood's sanity was divided. Potter also contended that the "McNaughten Rule" on a defense of insanity in a criminal trial was outdated.

The rule, which is now under study by a legislative commission, states that a man is legally sane if he knows the nature and quality of his actions.

Rockefeller told the attorneys that, as governor, he must act under existing law.

Potter noted further that the Court of Appeals had split, 4-3, in upholding Wood's conviction. Former governors Smith, Lehman, and Roosevelt never allowed a man to be executed on a 4-3 decision, he said.

Benjamin J. Jacobson, speaking for the Queens district attorney, said there was no reason for the governor to give clemency to Wood.

Wood is under the death sentence for the killing of John Rescigno, 62, and Frederick Ess, 77.

Nothing Unique, Report on Poor Results of Exams

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Grades equivalent to the sub-levels of D and F were received by more than half the New York State pupils who took a special examination in 1961 in English literature and composition.

The examination was given under the advanced placement program, which permits pupils to take college courses. The Educational Testing Service, which administers the test, said the poor scoring was not unique to New York State.

A study by the State Educational Department also revealed that above-average grades were attained by about half of the New York State pupils who took exams in Intermediate German, Latin 5 and Spanish.

D&H Allowed to Drop Susquehanna Service

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Delaware and Hudson Railroad won permission today to drop passenger service between Albany and Binghamton upon five days notice to the public.

The Public Service Commission also granted temporary authority to the Railway Express Agency to ship express by truck between the two cities, serving some points along the route.

D&H service on the route — called the Susquehanna Division — has been one train daily, except Sundays, in each direction.

The railroad said it lost $35,777 on the operation in 1961 and $33,823 in the first six months of 1962.

Widow, Farmhand Are Indicted in Husband's Slaying

BATH, N.Y. (AP)—A Steuben County grand jury has indicted a woman and a 19-year-old farmhand on a charge of first-degree murder in the shotgun death of her husband.

The indictment handed up Wednesday named Mrs. Stella Klymiuk, 34, and Wesley E. Nash Jr., both of nearby Prattsburg. She was accused of hiring Nash to kill her husband, Jurko Klymiuk, 43.

Police quoted Mrs. Klymiuk as saying she offered to pay Nash $1,500. Nash worked on a potato farm with the victim, whose body was found near a barn on his farm last Nov. 8. He had been shot twice.

Former JP Accused Of U. S. Tax Evasion

UTICA, N.Y. (AP)—Gordon M. Tripp, 51, an employee at Griffiss Air Force Base in Rome, is accused of evading payment of $25,716 in federal taxes on his mother's estate.

Tripp was indicted Tuesday by a federal grand jury. The government contends Tripp in 1957 appraised his mother's estate at $47,125 and paid an estate tax of $6,367. The estate of the late Josephine Tripp, who died in 1955, totaled $141,195 and the tax should have been $32,083, the government says.

Tripp was justice of the peace at Bridgewater, south of here, from 1946 to 1956.

Seaway Revenue Expected to Reach 4.9 Million Total

WASHINGTON (AP)—St. Lawrence Seaway revenue, chiefly from shipping tolls, is expected to total $4.9 million in the year starting July 1, an increase of $500,000 over the 12-month period that ends June 30.

Total operating expenses for the next year are expected to total $1,604,000, leaving an estimated net operating revenue of $3,296,000.

Interest and replacement expenses of $4,830,000, however, would leave a net loss of $1,534,000.

These estimates were contained in President Kennedy's budget for fiscal 1964.

The St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp., a government agency, is responsible for construction and operation of the U.S. portion of the 27-foot-deep seaway, estimated to cost $132.4 million. Work in place by next June 30 is estimated at $131.2 million and the 1964 program to complete the project is estimated at $1.2 million.

The Seaway was opened to traffic in 1959, permitting ocean-going ships to reach Great Lakes ports.

The net operating revenue is used to pay interest on funds borrowed from the Treasury to build the project. Payment of part of the accrued interest will be deferred until revenues from tolls are sufficient. It is estimated that all such deferred interest will be paid before the end of the Seaway's 10-year development period.

way's 10-year development period. Traffic and revenue from tolls has been less than was anticipated when construction of the Seaway was authorized.

Saugerties Man Injured in Crash Near Ulster Park

A 33-year-old Saugerties motorist was severely injured and later charged with failing to keep to the right, following a truck-car collision on Route 9W late Wednesday near Ulster Park.

State Police Sergeant Robert Smith reported Arthur DeCelle, 33, of 132 Market Street, Saugerties, suffered severe lacerations of the head and cerebral concussion. He was taken to Benedictine Hospital by Fattum's Ambulance Service.

DeCelle, a former Saugerties newsman, is an insurance adjuster employed by Albert Conte of Washington Avenue Extension, Saugerties. He was on his way to Newburgh to check a claim.

The other vehicle involved was a truck owned by Hertz Corporation, and operated by Salvatore A. Frogis, 23, of 859 Orchard Street, Peekskill.

According to an investigation by Trooper John Salter, Highland, Frogis was driving north and DeCelle was traveling south when his vehicle reportedly crossed over to the northbound lane and struck the rear wheels of the truck, Sergeant Smith said.

The impact, troopers said, knocked all wheels from under the truck, which was transporting a cargo of meat.

Sergeant Smith said Salter summoned DeCelle to appear at a later date before Justice of the Peace John O. Beaver, Town of Esopus, on a charge of failing to keep to the right.

ULSTER PARK CRASH ON ROUTE 9W—Impact of a two-vehicle collision late Wednesday afternoon, knocked the wheels from under a meat truck operated by Salvatore A. Frogis, 23, 859 Orchard Street, Peekskill, who escaped injury. The other vehicle, a 1958 sedan, was driven by Arthur DeCelle, 33, of Washington Avenue Extension, Saugerties, who suffered severe injuries and was hospitalized. Top photo based his projection of a tax cut's effect on revenues. He held back most details for a special message to Congress later this month.

Kennedy Asks $98.8 Billion in Budget

Declaring false economy would jeopardize the national interest, Kennedy recommended increased spending for defense and space efforts.

For all other programs combined, his recommendations were slightly under the current total. Individually, some were higher—such as health, labor, welfare, education, housing and community development. Others—farm, postal and shipping subsidy programs, for instance—were lower, and the decreases more than offset the increases.

No Discount on Defense
Proposed over-all defense spending of $56.4 billion would absorb 55 cents of every tax dollar, but Kennedy asserted: "There is no discount price on defense."

The total, up $2.4 billion from the current year, includes $51 billion for the Pentagon, $2.8 billion for the Atomic Energy Commission, $1.45 billion for military aid abroad and the balance for stockpiling, selective service and the like.

If Congress approves, expenditures aimed at landing a man on the moon in this decade and exploring faraway planets will go up 75 per cent, from $2.4 to $4.2 billion.

Pending a separate message, Kennedy withheld details on his education program. He didn't tell whether he again will recommend federal aid for school construction and teacher salaries, a proposal spiked on the religious issue in the last Congress. But he said spending should rise $165 million to $1.5 billion and he requested a doubling to $3 billion of appropriations for immediate and future use.

On Foreign Aid
In another controversial field, he suggested total spending of $3.75 billion on foreign aid. This would include $2.3 billion for economic assistance and represent a net decrease of $100 million in the entire program. He asked for an appropriation, however, of $4.9 billion. That's just about what he asked for a year ago. Congress cut out a billion.

For all functions of government, Kennedy requested new appropriations of $96.5 billion. These are the figures Congress debates. Appropriations control much of current spending, although part of the nearly $99 billion Kennedy proposes to spend has been previously authorized.

The President faces opposition to both his spending and tax plans because of the debt they will create.

Last year Congress raised the temporary limit to $308 billion, providing for a drop to $305 billion next April 1, to $300 billion on June 25 and back to the permanent ceiling of $285 billion on July 1.

Urges Extensions
To cope with conditions as he sees them, Kennedy urged a prompt extension of the $308-billion limit through June 30. He said he would seek a further increase for the next 12 months. The present outlook, he said, is for a debt of $15.6 billion at the end of that period. He postponed making a specific request, however, until a more reliable estimate is possible.

Before getting into the next fiscal year, Kennedy called on Congress to appropriate another $3.9 billion for the current year. He said that much is needed to pay for legislation passed in 1962 without adequate financing.

For 1963-64 spending, he made these additional recommendations in what is known as the administrative budget:

Agriculture—$5.7 billion, down $1.1 billion.
Natural resources—$2.5 billion, up a billion.
Housing and community development—$300 million, down $200 million.
Health, labor and welfare—$5.6 billion, up $700 million.

JFK Budget In Brief

Budget in Brief
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's fiscal 1964 budget proposes:
Deficit—Second biggest in peacetime, $11.9 billion.
Spending—Highest in war or peace, $98.8 billion.
Income—Pared by proposed tax cuts to $86.9 billion.
Taxes—Cuts totaling $13.5 billion spaced over three years; apparently to start July 1 with personal income rate reductions; partly offset later by $3.5 billion in "reforms."

How U. S. Will Split Tax Dollar

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ever wonder where your tax money goes? Here's how President Kennedy plans to split up your tax dollar in fiscal 1964:

Defense and foreign aid, 58 cents; space, 4 cents; interest on federal debt, 10 cents; agriculture 6 cents; veterans, 6 cents; all other, 16 cents.
And this is where each budget dollar will come from:
Individual income tax, 47 cents; corporation income tax, 24 cents; excise taxes, 11 cents; government borrowing, 11 cents; other sources, 7 cents.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—Profit-taking was stemmed and the stock market overcame an early loss, moving higher on balance early this afternoon. Trading was lively.

Reflecting a definite though small recovery in the over-all market, The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .3 at 251.3 with industrials up .7, rails off .3, and utilities up .3.

Among key stocks, gains and losses were kept mostly within fractional limits. Advances of 1 to 4 points were scored by some of the higher-priced or more volatile issues.

Chrysler recovered more than a point of Wednesday's drop of 4% on profit-taking then backed away, showing only a fractional gain.

As trading moved into the afternoon Wall Street sized up President Kennedy's proposal of an unprecedented $98.8 billion budget, an amount generally expected. Greater spending for missile defense and for space travel efforts also were anticipated.

McDonnell Aircraft, although troubled by a walkout, added a fraction. Boeing and General Dynamics were steady.

News that its color film will go on sale later this month helped Polaroid to a 4-point jump. IBM added more than 3, U.S. Smelting more than a point.

Pure Oil advanced more than a point. The major producers were narrowly mixed.

Top steelmakers were unchanged to fractionally lower.

General Motors rose ¼ to 60. American Motors touched another 1962-63 high as it gained a fraction.

Tshombe Appears Ready for Full Capitulation

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP)—President Moise Tshombe returned to his old Katangan capital today and at once plunged into talks with U.N. officials that should seal the end of his secession.

The meeting was called to work out details of a peaceful united nations entry into Kolwezi, his last bastion in the province.

Tshombe seemed ready for complete capitulation. He had not come to Elisabethville from Kolwezi to negotiate, he said. He was here only to discuss arrangements for U.N. troops to occupy the big industrial center.

Explosion Plans Off
Plans for blowing up the copper mines and big Union Miniere refinery at Kolwezi have been suspended, he told newsmen.

Tshombe added he would stay in Elisabethville long enough to insure that his orders giving U.N. forces free movement throughout Katanga are carried out.

The meeting with U.N. officials took place on the third floor of the towering U.N. headquarters on the outskirts of town.

Once the U.N. entry into Kolwezi is arranged, a U.N. spokesman said, talks can begin with Tshombe on arrangements to put U.N. Secretary-General U Thant's plan for Congo reunification into full effect.

Thant's unity plan calls for a 50-50 sharing of Katanga's mining revenues with the central regime in Leopoldville, a merger of the armed forces and adoption of a federal constitution.

May Cut U.N. Force

With an end to Katanga's secession in prospect, sources at U.N. headquarters in New York said Thant believes he can begin reducing the 19,000-man U.N. force in the Congo in a month's time.

But in South Kasai Province, a diamond-mining area northwest of Katanga, factional fighting appeared to be still raging, and on a scale worse than anything that has occurred in Katanga. The U.N. command has ignored the situation in South Kasai so far, contending that it is a problem for the Congolese army.

"There are many dead, many dead, many dead," said an African priest who came from Luluabourg to Leopoldville.

Experts Convene

York City lawyer and veteran labor dispute arbitrator and impartial chairman of management-labor relations in various industries, Morse served on the War Labor Board during World War II.

Kennedy asked Morse to report back to him no later than next Monday.

The President said the strike, which has tied up more than 350 ships and idled nearly 100,000 waterfront and seagoing workers, is inflicting economic losses on the nation "at a rate of millions of dollars a day."

Total losses to date are estimated at one-half billion dollars. Wages are one of the principal issues in the contract dispute. The I.L.A. is seeking a package increase of 30 cents an hour, including 26 cents in wages, over two years. The industry has offered 22 cents over two years. The prestrike basic wage was $3.02 an hour.

Family Facing Move Should Rent, Not Buy

ROGER E. SPEAR

Q "We are a young family with two small children. It is possible that my company may transfer me to another area at any time. Do you think we should buy a home with a small down payment and invest the bulk of our savings ($15,000) in growth stocks, or buy a house outright? Our town has 9,000 population." S.S.

A I think that for a young couple you've done extremely well to acquire a substantial nest egg—to say nothing of two small children.

I wonder if it is necessary for you to buy a house at all, which in a small town might be difficult to re-sell without loss. Even if you could get out even, you would probably have to pay a reasonable commission—which could make your tenure rather costly, if you were transferred within a year or two.

I suggest you rent a place, if possible, invest half your savings in growth stocks, and leave the balance in the bank.

Q "Middle-aged and growing old is my problem—plus the fact that I have cats and dogs in my portfolio. I own 155 shares of American Telephone, 100 Bethlehem, 10 Fanny Mae, 100 International Paper, 50 Air Reduction, 40 Atlantic Refining. Would you sell any of these and buy more American Telephone?" R.N.

A I'm afraid I can't help you about your first problem. After spending nearly 40 years advising investors, I'm no chicken myself, but growing older has its compensations as you will discover for yourself. However, I can assure you that you have a fine list with no real cats and dogs on it.

The only stocks I don't like are International Paper and Bethlehem Steel—but these are financially strong situations where the earnings outlook is cloudy because of cost-price squeezes. I would hold Paper at present levels but switch out of Bessie—not into Telephone of which you hold enough—but into FNMA, a fine holding which you should build up.

should attach a "New York State" label to more homegrown products to promote sales.

Clemency Hearing—The governor heard attorneys for Frederick Charles Wood, 51, argue that Wood was insane and should not be electrocuted for the murder of two elderly men in Queens in 1960. Rockefeller reserved decision.

Democrats—State Comptroller Arthur Levitt called a high-level meeting of Democrats for next Tuesday to formulate a party program for the 1963 session of the Legislature. The move was seen as a bid by Levitt to exercise leadership in party affairs on the strength of his re-election last November.

Payments for overtime rose from $900,000 in 1960 to $2.9 million in 1962.

There was no estimate of the amount that would be saved through the new rules.

The administration is drafting a budget in which state spending is expected to rise approximately $200 million, to more than $2.8 billion.

For example:
Tip No. 1—"Don't neglect your district, don't yield to the temptation of trying to solve all of these vital state-wide problems until you have made certain you have helped solve the problems of your Senate district."

Translation—"The last young Lochinvar we had around here didn't get re-elected."

Tip No. 2—"Answer the mail promptly...if it is only to tell them (constituents) why you cannot help them in a particular situation."

Translation—"All those campaign promises you made—forget 'em! We got a tight budget this year."

Giles reported he stole the car Friday night in Little Rock, Barnes said.

Alarm Over Split

on the faces of the Red Chinese delegation, Peking might consider doing just that.

Rejects Peking Parley

Khrushchev rejected Peking's idea of a meeting of world Red leaders on Chinese terms. If the Chinese want to talk about ending the dispute, says Khrushchev, they first must stop the name-calling in public. It has been going on for a long time now and is rising in violence.

Khrushchev accused the Chinese of wanting to spread communism by war, without regard for the widespread destruction that course might bring. There are other ways, says the Soviet leader, and there should not be resort to arms even in a revolutionary movement if the seizure of power can be achieved less riskily.

The Chinese don't agree that both sides will suffer catastrophe in nuclear war. There are three quarters of a billion Chinese. Mao Tse-tung contends plenty of them will be left after the United States and the U.S.S.R. toss bombs back and forth.

Pleads, Threatens

Khrushchev was both pleading and threatening.

The Soviet leader does not want to see world communism weakened by an irreparable schism. If it is possible, he undoubtedly would like to see the argument patched up. But perhaps the Red Chinese want too much.

One of the things Mao seems to want is Khrushchev's head. The Chinese leader appears to have made up his mind that it is impossible for him to live with Khrushchev, that the rift will continue until an aggressive-minded Communist takes the Soviet reins.

Mao has been annoyed with Khrushchev's regime for some years. There has been irritation in Peking at the niggardliness of Soviet economic help for Red China and Soviet reluctance to sponsor Peking's membership in the nuclear club, to say nothing of Soviet aid to India and other governments the Chinese consider "reactionary."

This is primarily a rift between Khrushchev and Mao. It does not necessarily mean the Soviet-Chinese split is permanent. But while it remains so obvious, it damages the whole Communist movement. And Khrushchev seems to be at a loss to determine just what to do about it.

Orders New Trial For Dutchess Man

A new trial for Walter A. Webb, 22, Pleasant Plains Road, Staatsburg, who was convicted Nov. 28 by a Dutchess County court jury of one count of second degree assault, was ordered Wednesday by County Judge John R. Schwartz at Poughkeepsie.

Judge Schwartz set aside the jury verdict, and said in his decision: "It now appears without doubt that the complaining witness testified falsely upon the trial of the indictment as to her whereabouts and activities just prior to meeting the defendant and his companion on the night in question. The complainant is now under indictment for perjury arising from such testimony."

The judge added, "While this evidence concerns the credibility of the complainant rather than the main facts in issue, nevertheless, it is the opinion of this court that in all probability the jury would have disbelieved the complainant's entire story and acquitted the defendant had she disclosed the facts concerning which she falsely testified."

Webb and Gary P. Wilcha, 21, Hyde Park had been indicted on charges arising from the complaint made by Mrs. Joseph DiZefalo, 42, of 16 Marino Road, Town of Poughkeepsie. Wilcha subsequently was acquitted. The woman accused the two men of assaulting her in the Town of Hyde Park last May 8.

The trial jury acquitted Webb of five counts in the indictment and convicted him of one count after deliberating 33 hours. District Attorney Raymond C. Baratta and his assistant, John Heilman, joined in the motion to set aside the conviction made by N. LeVan Haver, Webb's attorney with Attorney Edward Filipowicz, Poughkeepsie, of counsel.

To Offer Course For Medical Aide At High School

Major H. Edgar Timmerman, director of Civil Defense for Ulster County, today announced that a medical aide course will be offered to residents of the area at Kingston High School under the Adult Education program.

This medical aide course is similar to the standard Red Cross course and consists of 5 2 hour sessions. It is an introductory course called "Self-Help, Neighbor Help" and the name indicates the purpose. Included in the class work will be the latest treatment for burns and artificial respiration.

Civil Defense recommends that at least one person in every family take this course and especially urges young parents to take advantage of it. All interested persons are asked to register at once with Mr. Raphael Klein, Director of Adult Education at the Vocational Building or with the Civil Defense office in the City Hall. Registration may be made in person or by phone.

Mrs. Genevieve Tinnie, RN, will be the instructor, and if necessary, more than one class will be started. There is no registration fee for any Civil Defense course.

28 Applications In for Exams on Police, Fire Jobs

Some 28 of about 75 application forms taken from the city clerk's office, City Hall, for civil service examinations February 16 to fill police and fire department posts, were returned by the 4 p. m. deadline Wednesday, best available information sources indicated today.

Of the total about 18 were filed for the police examination and 10 for fire department posts. Some 50 forms had been picked up for the police department test and about 25 for that intended to establish an eligibility list for the fire department.

The police department now has nine vacancies, and the fire department is due to add at least two men during the year.

A police department eligibility list expected to contain at least six names is due soon for consideration by the police board. It was prepared after a written test in September followed by physical and agility tests. A previous list contains only one name.

Many 'Ifs' Are Packed
In New JFK Budget

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Rarely has an official budget estimate had to be packed with as many "ifs" as the one the President presents to Congress this noon.

One big question mark is what Congress will do about cutting taxes—and hence Treasury revenues.

Fast, Sharp Changes

Another is which way the economy will go—and how fast, either up or down—before the fiscal 1964 budget expires July 1, 1964. Because, with the major share of Treasury collections coming from individual and corporate income taxes, whether the economy is booming or slumping makes all the difference. Budget estimates in any January have a way of changing fast and often sharply before the Treasury closes its books on the fiscal year involved some 18 months later.

And a third big question this time is which way do you figure the budget anyhow? The administrative or traditional budget will estimate an outlay under $100 billion. The actual cash flow, both in and out of the Treasury, is sure to be well above that.

But one thing the American citizen can be sure of is that the Treasury will be using red ink. Another is that spending and debt will rise to new highs, whether revenues do or don't. The Treasury expects to run about $10 billion short in cash. The administrative budget deficit is put nearer $12 billion if Congress follows all the proposals for spending and tax cutting. This will be on top of the cumulative deficits of the last five years of more than $24 billion. And so the federal debt will continue to rise. The President will be forced to ask Congress to raise the official debt limit once more. Temporarily this is put at $308. If the budget estimate works out as now thought, the Treasury might find the debt in excess of $316 billion when it closes the books June 30, 1964.

The stock market has pretty well anticipated the budget submitted today. For weeks it has acted on the assumption that spending would rise for defense and space projects.

The market has been betting that Congress will enact some form of tax cuts. Just who will benefit, and how much, and how soon are still matters for guessing. So are the effects on the economy in general and on particular industries.

And the debates on the virtues and vices of Treasury deficits will find a split among businessmen just as among congressmen.

Electronics Firm
Adds to Services

Kingston Electronics, 124 North Front Street, has added to its line of services. A commercial division of the company is being opened at the same address that will offer services in the fields of closed circuit and educational television, television distribution and audio.

The new division will be known as the Kingston Electronics Division. At present, Kingston Electronics is a wholesale distributor and employs four persons. Other branches of the company are in Troy and North Adams, Mass.

The general manager of the newly established Kingston Electronics Commercial Division is Jeffrey Marks, of Philadelphia, Pa. He was formerly with a Philadelphia Jerrold electronics distributor and has been in Kingston since establishment of the commercial division began six weeks ago.

Vets Don't Have To List Benefits When Filing Tax

Area veterans were reminded today that in filing their federal and state income taxes, they need not count as income any payments they have received for veteran benefits, since these payments are wholly tax free.

Charles Culver, state counselor, New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs, and John Tyler, director of the Ulster County Veterans' Service Agency, also said that the proceeds of GI life insurance policies, including the dividends themselves are exempt from tax reporting. However, interest earned on GI life insurance dividends left on deposit is not a "benefit" and is taxable.

Included among the other veteran payments which need not be reported are: Education and training allowances under the

Korean GI Bill, subsistence payments made to disabled World War II and Korean conflict veterans training under the Vocational Rehabilitation Acts, disability compensation and pension payments received by veterans for service connected and non-service connected disabilities, grants to seriously disabled veterans for homes designed for

"wheelchair living," grants for motor vehicles to veterans to veterans who lost their sight or the use of their limbs, and World War I Emergency Officers' retirement pay.

Culver and Tyler pointed out that veteran death benefits to families of deceased veterans are tax exempt. They include death compensation and pension, indemnity and all GI insurance payments.

Further information relative to the filing of Federal and State income tax statements by veterans and their families or any problems concerning entitlement to veteran benefits may be secured by contacting Culver, state counselor, of the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs or Tyler, county director, Ulster County Veterans' Service Agency at 32 Main Street, Kingston, New York — Monday thru Friday 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. (Branch offices in Ellenville, Highland, Kerhonkson, and Saugerties).

Hesitant Viet Officers May Prolong War With Guerrillas

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hesitant leadership by South Vietnamese field officers and lack of aggressiveness by South Vietnamese GIs may prolong the war to crush Communist guerrillas threatening that country's independence.

This assessment emerges from talks with U.S. military officials involved in the massive American effort to help the pro-Western government in Saigon.

In the past year, the United States has fed money, military advisers and modern equipment into South Viet Nam and has made significant progress in improving the firepower, mobility, communications and planning of its armed forces.

Disappointing Results

U.S. experts have been trying to shape strong South Vietnamese military leadership from the top command to the squad level.

Results so far have been disappointing, particularly at the field echelon.

There is a feeling among some U.S. military authorities, who declined to be identified, that poor leadership could be the Achilles heel of the South Vietnamese effort to wipe out the persistent and resourceful Communist Viet Cong.

The top U.S. commander in South Viet Nam, Gen. Paul D. Harkins, took note of criticism voiced by unidentified American military advisers and issued a statement in Saigon.

Blasts Criticism

"I believe that anyone who criticizes the fighting qualities of the armed forces of the republic of Viet Nam is doing a disservice to the thousands of gallant and courageous men who are fighting in the defense of their country," Harkins said.

Harkins said about 10,000 South Vietnamese soldiers have been killed in action in the past year and that almost 30,000 dead Viet Cong insurgents "attest to their courage."

U.S. advisers can only go so far—they are barred from issuing any commands in battle. There is little likelihood that this will change.

Fears Puppet Designation

South Viet Nam's President Ngo Dinh Diem insists on holding a tight rein on his military forces. Even if he should consent to allowing U.S. officers command authority, there is the strong possibility the Communists would seize on this to picture South Viet Nam as a complete puppet of the United States.

Some of the difficulties of inculcating leadership in the South Vietnamese stem from the past when the French dominated the country and natives never were allowed to rise above junior officer grade.

Needed on Front

The best—and best educated—South Vietnamese officers are in the many headquarters which are overstrength, by U.S. standards.

The battalions and rifle companies—where the fighting is done—are staffed with the less educated officers, mostly of peasant stock. These combat units are understrength in officers.

The result, as U.S. officials see it, is indecisiveness and timidity by small unit commanders in battle.

Because of these shortcomings, top commanders have been drafting detailed operational plans and insisting on rigid adherence. This denies the small unit leader any initiative—even if he cares to exercise it.

Overweight Is Seen As National Problem

Editor's Note: Doctors and nutritionists call the increase in overweight among teen-agers a national problem. Gaynor Maddox, NEA's noted food and nutrition reporter, knows that this national problem is composed of millions of personal problems. And it is for individual boys and girls that he has collected the advice of the nation's leading experts presented in this series. Maddox's latest book, "Slim Down, Shape-Up Diets for Teen-Agers," will be published this spring by Avon.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Food and Markets Editor

You are in your teens and overweight.

Your parents nag and threaten you because you eat too much. You don't have many dates.

So you stay at home, lying on the couch or snuggled into an easy chair, watching television for hours while you nibble candy, cookies or potato chips. Food seems to ease your loneliness, to take the sting out of being by-passed by the boys who seem to want only slender girls.

Or by girls who don't want fellows who are tubby.

How can you lose those pounds that are making you so unhappy?

First, you have to decide you really want to lose them.

Second, you must cut down on high-calorie foods you love.

Third, and this is very important, you have to get off your bottom. What you do is just as important as what you eat. Sitting around watching television, using your feet as little as possible, riding whenever you can instead of walking, will put weight on you even though you don't eat a great deal.

Dr. V. Roswell Gallagher, chief of the Adolescent Unit of Children's Hospital Medical Center in Boston, says:

"Yes, what boys and girls DO is as important as how much they eat. Their appetites and diets may be enormous, but if they are constantly on the run they may not have a single ounce of excess fat."

Dr. Gallagher is famous for his work with overweight teenagers just like you. He, too, is saying: "Get off your bottom."

Another leading authority on teen-age obesity, Dr. Jean Mayer of Harvard, states that from 15 to 20 per cent of all adolescents are so heavy they can be classified as medical problems.

Asserting that sports and games and other activities are vital to your nutrition and health, he is troubled by your declining interest in dancing in favor of sitting events, by the shrinking of available spots for outdoor games, the vanishing of the old sand lot and the old swimming hole. He warns against a foot-dragging response to the President's physical fitness program and regards the increase in adolescent overweight a threat to national health. He says:

"In this post-Sputnik era, we seem more determined to produce scientists than young men and women with physical development and stamina. As a result, school athletic programs are often deprived of funds. We should realize that building strong, nonfat, active students is a vital part of education, no matter what the price tag."

Are you one of those overweight teenagers who try to avoid school gym and physical education classes because you are embarrassed to be seen in a gym suit? Natalie Stiber, physical education teacher at a New York coed junior high school, reports:

"Many of our heaviest girls bring notes from their mothers saying their daughters are not strong enough for supervised calisthenics. They give all kinds of unsupported reasons, such as asthma, cramps, fatigue, weak back, etc."

Miss Stiber believes that instead of trying to soften life for teen-agers, mothers would be far kinder to encourage you to be more active. Not only to help you work off some of the fat which is depressing you, but also to keep you on your feet long enough to stop feeling sorry for yourself, with a compensating box of chocolates by your side.

Dr. Evelyn B. Spindler, a nutritionist with the U. S. Department of agriculture, active in promoting nutrition education among 4-H Clubs and other teen-aged groups, urges you to realize that intelligent eating as well as physical activity are both important in losing weight. She says:

"Although many of you teen-agers hate being fat, you need a tremendous amount of motivation before you will do anything for yourselves."

"Our problem is to discover ways to encourage you to want to learn better eating habits and to take part in school and club activities which will banish the loneliness and boredom that make you console yourselves by overeating."

Dr. Spindler asked one group of teen-age girls the best way to get them interested in a nutrition and physical activity program. They answered:

"Don't preach and push at us—just have a handsome, athletic and popular boy conduct the project. Then watch us do something about our weight."

Unfortunately, handsome, athletic teen-age boys are not usually interested in overweight girls who don't make an effort to reduce.

Boice Is Elected To 24th Term by Ulster Savings

The Board of Trustees of Ulster County Savings Institution of Kingston on Tuesday reelected Pratt Boice to his 24th consecutive term as president. It was remarked that his long tenure might well be a record in regard to bank presidents, and that certainly President Boice is one of the most durable and dedicated presidents in banking experience.

During his presidency, the total assets of this 112-year-old bank have grown from $10 million to over $39 million. During the year 1962 Ulster County Savings Institution paid as interest dividends to depositors the sum of $1,256,158.88.

President's Trip May Go Beyond Italy Boundaries

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomats speculated today that President Kennedy's trip to Italy might be expanded to include some other European countries.

The White House announced Wednesday that Kennedy had accepted an invitation from Italian Premier Amintore Fanfani to visit Italy this year. The date is yet to be determined.

Administration officials said that the President plans to go only to Italy and there is no plan for him to visit anywhere else.

However, Western diplomats said it would be surprising if disclosure of the visit to Rome did not bring feelers from other European capitals for a Kennedy stop while he is in Europe.

Principal interest in diplomatic quarters focused on two possibilities:

1. That Kennedy might see French President Charles de Gaulle for a discussion of the split between France and the United States as well as other North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations over the formation of an allied nuclear striking force.

2. That a meeting might be arranged between Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev for an informal talk on "East-West" problems. It has been about a year and a half since Kennedy and Khrushchev met.

Hercules Plant Workers Achieve New Safety Goal

Employees of Hercules Powder Company plant at Port Ewen on Monday passed another accident free milestone by accumulating 1,496 days and approximately 4,730,000 man-hours since the last tabular industrial injury which occurred January 6, 1959.

The announcement from D. C. Parker, works manager said since the inception of the Safety Award Program at the Port Ewen plant on March 22, 1954, the plant has experienced a total of five industrial injuries.

To be eligible for the award, employees must have been on the payroll on or before June 28 of last year, and continuously through January 14, this year. Award selection cards will be distributed to all eligible employees.

Port Ewen has been a leader in safety performance within the company since the program began. The local plant is in second place in the Hercules Industrial Injury Safety Performance Record.

Woman Awarded $20,000 by Court For Auto Injuries

Tuesday saw two Supreme Court juries deliberating at the same time, a rather unusual thing. With two parts operating at the January term, Justices Roscoe V. Elsworth is holding Part I and Justice Louis G. Bruhn Part II.

Rose Neice of Stamford was awarded $20,000 in Supreme Court in an action against Raymond Tator and another. The action arose out of injuries which plaintiff received while a passenger in a car of which was involved in an accident. She sued both Tator and Brinicke. At the trial testimony was offered to the effect that she had spent some $5,000 in medical and hospital bills. Conway, Conway and Conway by Robert Conway of Albany appeared for plaintiff and Oliver, Scully and Delaney, with Oliver Scully as trial counsel, appeared for Brinicke and Cook and Cook, by Francis X. Tucker, appeared for Tator. The action was tried before Justice Elsworth.

In the second case John Pulvirenti and another brought a contract action against Delmo R. Ellis. The action arose out of sale of Tropical Inn. Four days were spent in trial which resulted in a "no cause" verdict. Abraham Streifer appeared for plaintiff and Howard C. St. John for defendant.

Two automobile negligence actions were on trial today, Aldo G. Gianmoena against Walter Smith Welding Supplies, Inc., and another and Francis Fischer against Aldo G. Gianmoena and another. Howard C. St. John appears for Gianmoena in the action against Smith Welding, who is represented by Cook and Cook, and in the second action Cook and Cook appear for Francis Fischer and Ewig and Beck and Rosen and Rosen for defendants.

Laborer, In-Law Jailed in Girl's Death by Fire

WAMPSVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — Laborer Raymond F. Clark, 38, and his 21-year-old sister-in-law were in jail today on charges arising from the death of Clark's young daughter in a fire Jan. 9.

Clark was charged with second-degree manslaughter, adultery and endangering the life of a child. Betty Jane Smith, his sister-in-law and the mother of two children, was charged with adultery and endangering the life or health of a child.

Both are from West Eaton. Clark entered no plea when arraigned Wednesday before Judge Ross Patane of Madison County Court and was ordered held in the county jail pending a hearing Friday.

Mrs. Smith pleaded guilty to the two charges against her and was ordered to jail in lieu of $500 bail, pending sentencing.

Clark is accused of leaving his three young daughters at home alone and visiting Mrs. Smith in her home when the fire broke out in the Clark home.

Christine Joan Clark, 4, died in the fire, and another daughter, Claudine, was burned critically. A third daughter, Kathleen, 6, escaped.

Mrs. Clark was at work.

The House of Delegates, the student-government organization at the college, sent the letters Wednesday.

The Board of Trustees of the State University is to meet Jan. 22 to act on a proposed uniform tuition policy for the university.

Castro No Longer Robin Hood, Says Morrison in Talk

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—The image of Fidel Castro as a Latin American "Robin Hood" has been destroyed by the Cuban crisis, Ambassador DeLesseps Morrison says.

Morrison, U.S. representative to the Organization of American States, Wednesday told a City Club audience that Castro's image "has taken a serious nosedive in the past two months."

"This is important," Morrison said, "because sizeable numbers of Latin Americans had viewed Castro as a Robin Hood."

Later, in an interview, the ambassador said that a Cuban crisis of sorts would continue for some time because of U.S. concern over the presence of Russian troops on the island.

Carnegie Quotation

Editor, The Freeman:

A hobby of mine is to save newspaper clippings. In looking at some of them from a defunct weekly paper in New Hampshire that published many letters from this writer relating to the Socialist Labor Party and its endeavors to build a better world, there is a quotation by Andrew Carnegie in a letter that Mr. Carnegie wrote to his trustees in 1910:

"I have transferred to you, as trustees of the Carnegie Peace Fund, $10 million of bonds to be administered by you to hasten the abolition of international war, the foulest blot upon our civilization. Although we no longer eat our fellow men, nor torture prisoners, nor sack cities, killing their inhabitants, we still kill each other in war like barbarians. Only wild beasts are excusable for doing that in this, the 20th century of the Christian era, for the crime of war is inherent since it decides not in favor of the right, but always of the strong. The nation is criminal which refuses arbitration and drives its adversary to a tribunal which knows nothing of righteous judgement."

Mr. Carnegie was fortunate that he wasn't around to see the carnage of World War 2 and the development of the atomic bomb. Even though the editor of the Kearsarge Independent, published in Warner, N. H., was a very conservative Republican, he kept the letters column open to opinions that he did not necessarily agree with, even when my Socialist Labor Party letters brought me into conflict with two of his star columnists and the fireworks started flying.

Sincerely yours
NATHAN PRESSMAN

Label All State Products, Growers Told by Governor

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Farmers should take advantage of the superiority of their products by giving them a "New York State" label to promote sales, Gov. Rockefeller said.

Rockefeller, speaking Wednesday night at a dinner that concluded the 131st annual meeting of the State Agricultural Society, said that discriminating consumers would learn that a New York State label meant "the best product you can buy."

The society presented Century-Farm awards to owners of four farms that have been in their families for more than 100 years.

The citations went to Kenneth and Ralph Simons of Smyrna, Chenango County; William H. and Charles Morris and Donald Gaige of Alpine, Schuyler County; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Johnson of St. Johnsville, Montgomery County, and Walter Banker of Plattsburgh.

Anchor Aweigh

MIAMI (AP) — The Miami River is the boundary between two elementary school districts. School authorities said one family resides in a houseboat on the river. If any of their four children become disenchanted in any way, the family simply slips mooring lines, chugs to the other bank of the river and enrolls the children in the other school. Authorities said it had happened several times.

Wide Attendance Is Sought for Local Seminar

Plans to promote attendance from all of the northeastern states at the National Security Seminar here in May are being developed by Harold E. Keator, chairman of civilian enrollment.

The National Security Seminar is a 2-week comprehensive course in the economics of survival conducted by a team of experts from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces in Washington, D. C. It is one of 14 scheduled throughout the country between October and April. About 200 military personnel, on active duty, will be assigned to attend.

The lectures and films will be of interest to all citizens. Everybody interested in the welfare of the country is welcome. Enrollment will be sought for the full course, but attendance at any of the sessions would be welcomed. There will be a small registration fee for the course.

The Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the seminar and John Posen is the general chairman. The Chamber of Commerce serves as the seminar headquarters. At present general brochures outlining the purpose and other information are available. Complete programs of the entire seminar will be available in February. The seminar dates are May 16-17 and the sessions will take place at the Armory on Manor Avenue.

Reports Controls Up Milk Price, Cut Consumption

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Joint State Government Commission reports retail milk price control has forced consumer prices upward and milk consumption downward.

The commission, research arm of the legislature, issued its findings following a study of milk price regulation. State law allows the Milk Control Commission to establish retail and wholesale prices.

In its report issued Wednesday, the Joint State Government Commission found: "Attempts by the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission to enhance the economic position of farmers by means of high fluid use producer prices have resulted in high consumer prices for fluid milk, low fluid milk consumption, and the stimulation of uneconomical milk production."

The report also stated that the set prices were "higher than in comparable markets in other states." State prices have risen 45 per cent since 1946, while prices in federally regulated markets have risen 18 per cent on the average.

The report said Pennsylvania milk production has risen 52 per cent in the past 16 years—a greater percentage than in any northern dairy state.

Nik Visits Wall, Waves Cheerfully To West Berliners

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev today visited communism's bleak and gated wall dividing Berlin and gazed thoughtfully for a moment at the American flag fluttering over nearby Checkpoint Charlie.

Standing at the point where U.S. and Soviet tanks confronted each other in the Berlin crisis of October 1961, he waved cheerfully to people in West Berlin.

Hailed by Gomulka
The premier made his excursion to the wall at midday after hearing Wladyslaw Gomulka, Polish Communist chief, hail him as the man who saved the world from nuclear catastrophe during the Cuban crisis.

Khrushchev spent the morning at the East German Communist party conference where the argument between Moscow and Peking occupies the attention of 2,500 delegates and guests.

Gomulka demanded that the Chinese Communists cease their attacks on Soviet policies and "show greater modesty and moderation" in their dealings with Moscow.

Gomulka went right down the line to make it clear that he was backing Khrushchev without qualification in the argument with Peking. He also urged that this argument be taken out of the world's gaze and be settled by private discussions.

With East German party chief Walter Ulbricht at his side, Khrushchev then went to the wall. He showed no inclination to accept West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt's suggestion that he look at the wall from West Berlin. He approached the border at the U.S. sector's Friedrichstrasse crossing point.

No Move to Cross Over

Brandt, in an interview early this month, suggested that Khrushchev get a first-hand picture of the real conditions in both parts of divided Berlin. But Khrushchev made no move to cross over into the West.

In bright sunshine, Khrushchev stood at the first red-and-white striped pole barring entry into East Berlin. Maj. Gen. Helmut Poppe, the East German commandant of East Berlin, stood at his side explaining the layout of the crossing point.

On the western side, an American Army officer in steel helmet and combat equipment stood near the dividing line watching the activity in the east.

A line of 10 East German border guard officers stopped pedestrians crossing while Khrushchev was at the checkpoint.

The Soviet premier walked forward to the white line across Friedrichstrasse marking the border between East and West.

Standing two feet from the line Khrushchev grinned and waved cheerfully to a group of Western newsmen six feet away from him.

Will Tour East Germany

Then Khrushchev made a gesture with his hand, indicating it was time to go back. The group turned around and walked back into East Berlin.

They disappeared behind the maze of concrete obstacles across the road designed to keep vehicles from breaking through the Communist barriers.

East German officials said Khrushchev will make a trip through East Germany before the end of his present visit. The time and route were not disclosed.

The congress is due to end Jan. 21.

Khrushchev spent the morning at the third session of the East German party congress where he heard Gomulka say the Soviet leader is calling the tune correctly for the world Communist movement.

Hollywood in Trouble

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Helen Hayes says motion pictures are in "an era of terrible trouble" because Hollywood has lost touch with public taste.

"If Hollywood is still in the Tennessee Williams era, the rest of the country isn't," the famed stage star said Wednesday.

"Hollywood went all arty and then went into the grim, Italian phase," she said. "Now it's simply in an era of terrible trouble."

Miss Hayes is to appear in a play.

1st Federal Has Progress Report, Officers Elected

Robert A. MacKinnon, Harry Halverson, George C. Swart and J. Allan Wood were reelected directors of First Federal Savings and Loan Association for a term of three years at the annual meeting held Wednesday. Other directors of the Association include Deweese W. DeWitt, Joseph J. Kelly, Wilmer S. Nickerson, Clair S. Sheaffer, John B. Sterley and George Svirsky.

Deweese W. DeWitt, executive vice president and treasurer, reported on the progress of the Association during the year 1962. He said:

"The gains in savings accounts amounted to $2,800,000 or a percentage gain of 19.4 per cent. This makes the Institution the fastest growing thrift organization in this area."

"The year 1962 was the first year of full operation of our branch office in Hyde Park. The operations at the location have been especially successful and this branch office fulfills a need in that fast growing community."

Loan Demand Strong

"Loan demand has been especially strong during 1962 with an increase in loans closed of over 33 1/3 per cent. The total for the year was three hundred and thirty-three loans with a mortgage figure of slightly over $4,000,000."

"The past year has been the first one with our new Home Improvement Loan Department. This is under the direction of our assistant treasurer, William F. Paulus. We are now in a position to make loans up to $3500 with five years to pay under the FHA Title I Loan Program."

JOHN B. STERLEY

"The Association continued to hit a new high with earnings before dividends of approximately $712,000. This is more than twice the earnings of five years ago. Dividends to members were $625,000 which was an increase of about $150,000 over 1961. The tremendous increase in savings and mortgage demand has not caused the board of directors to abandon the cautious attitude which they have pursued during the 70 odd years of operation of this association."

"As size increases it is even more important that extreme care be given in the selection of mortgage risks. The board of directors of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Kingston are practicing this course of action. "The outlook for 1963 is slightly clouded and the board of directors are taking a view of cautious optimism. They realize that with the high ratio of loans being given today it is necessary that extreme care be exercised as to the moral responsibility of the applicant and First Federal is pursuing this policy. All in all 1963 looks like a good year for the institution and it appears that the gross earnings will pass the million dollar mark for the first time."

"First Federal will continue to pay the highest dividend consistent with safety and it is expected that the rate on all accounts during 1963 will be 4 per cent compounded quarterly. This is the best rate paid in the area as there is no waiting period to obtain the full 4 per cent. Systematic savings accounts are also available upon which an extra bonus dividend up to 1 per cent can be earned."

The directors met for organization immediately following the meeting of the members and elected the following officers: John B. Sterley, president and attorney; J. Allan Wood, vice president; Harry Halverson, vice president; Deweese W. DeWitt, executive vice president and treasurer; Robert A. MacKinnon, secretary and associate counsel; William D. Costello, auditor; William F. Paulus, assistant treasurer; Alexander J. McKittick, assistant secretary and manager of Hyde Park Office; Charles R. Carpenter, assistant secretary and manager of Central Broadway Office; Rosalind B. Wilber, administrative assistant.

Gary Merrill Wins Right to Visit Children

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actor Gary Merrill has won the right to visit two of his adopted children—but over the bitter objections of his ex-wife, actress Bette Davis.

A Superior Court judge ruled that Merrill, 47, can have his adopted son, Michael, 10, on alternate weekends and some holidays.

The actor also can make reasonable visits to their daughter, Margot, 12, who is in a school in Pennsylvania.

But, the judge said, Merrill cannot visit the children while "under the influence of alcoholic beverages."

Merrill and Miss Davis were divorced in Maine in 1960 after 10 years of marriage.

Rondout Group Plans to Discuss Area Expansion

Industrial expansion of the Rondout Valley will be discussed at a special meeting of Rondout Area Development Corp., Wednesday, Jan. 23 at 8 p. m. in Kerhonkson Firehouse.

Dale W. Swartzmiller, regional manager of the State Department of Commerce office in Kingston, will be the speaker. He will be available for a question and answer period regarding industrial expansion.

Invitations were sent to Kerhonkson Lions Club, Kerhonkson Area Chamber of Commerce and the public. The main topic for discussion will be the differences between a profit or non-profit industrial development corporation. There will be a vote on the question, according to Joseph S. Babiarczyk, chairman of the group.

Methods for attracting new industry to the area, industrial brochures and an advertising program will also be discussed.

Accord Driver Is Charged After Kerhonkson Crash

A 34-year-old Accord man was charged with driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated Wednesday afternoon following a two-car collision which occurred on Route 209 at the intersection of Route 44-55 near Kerhonkson.

State Trooper Walter Hubert, Ellenville, reported Joseph Countryman, of Accord, was held pending arraignment before Justice of the Peace Herbert Pop-pel, Town of Wawarsing later today.

Trooper Hubert said Arthur Geary, 63, Kerhonkson, was driving south on Route 209 about 4:25 p. m. and stopped to make a left turn into Route 44-55. The trooper said that Countryman was following the Geary car and the accused man's car reportedly struck the rear of the Kerhonkson motorist's vehicle. No injuries were reported.

Wounded After Wreck

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A freight train slammed into an automobile and carried it along for 60 yards before the woman driver leaped to safety Wednesday.

The woman, Mrs. Ronald Scobey, 20, suffered a split lip. "It's funny about that lip," she said later. "I was so shook up I think I bit it after the wreck."

Fidel May Allow Second Group to Fly Out Friday

HAVANA (AP)—A Swiss diplomat said today Fidel Castro's government is expected to allow a second plane load of Cuban-American citizens to go to the United States Friday.

The envoy, whose government handles U.S. interests in Cuba, said he did not know how many would be sent this time. More than 700 Americans have filed applications for repatriation. The first group of 68 men, women and children of U.S. citizenship arrived in Miami, Fla., by special plane last Sunday.

None of the estimated 25 to 30 Americans held prisoner by Castro's government was on the first flight, and there was no indication any would be released Friday.

There are about 900 American citizens still in Cuba, most of them children. About 170 are working with Castro's government.

Joint Meeting Fizzles

Publishers Hopeful Of Outside Pressure For News Settlement

NEW YORK (AP)—The stalemate between striking printers and the publishers of the city's nine major dailies sent New York's newspaper blackout into its 41st day today.

A joint meeting of both sides Wednesday broke up when the printers' negotiating team left for a caucus, whereupon the publishers' representatives walked out.

Ready for Call

Amory H. Bradford, vice president of the New York Times and chief negotiator for the Publishers Association of New York City said as he quit the meeting: "We are ready to resume meetings when the union is ready to negotiate. We are always ready to meet at the call of the mediators."

In a statement issued later, the Publishers Association expressed "determination to resolve the dispute through the processes of collective bargaining."

The publishers expressed hope that Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Mayor Robert F. Wagner would intensify their efforts for a settlement.

Powers Lashes Attitude

Bertram A. Powers, head of 3,000 striking members of Local 6 of the AFL-CIO International Typographical Union, said the publishers' walkout "defied the mediators, showed contempt for the union and a refusal to negotiate."

Federal Mediator Stephen I. Schlossberg made no comment on the walkout, saying only that he would try to set up another joint meeting.

In Cleveland, a strike of the AFL-CIO Newspaper Guild and the independent Teamsters Union sent the city's newspaper blackout into its 49th day today. Shut-down are the Plain Dealer and the Press & News.

Representatives of the Guild and management met for 2½ hours Wednesday night in joint and separate sessions. Both sides declined to discuss whether any progress was made.

The Press & News called a meeting for today of more than 100 commercial department employees, who are non-union, to hear an invitation to join the Newspaper Guild.

Union security is a main issue in the Guild dispute.

The New York dispute, which has thrown about 20,000 employees out of work, centers about wages and fringe benefits in a new two-year contract.

Mounted to His Cabin

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Casey Jones of ballad fame was born John Luther Jones at Jordan, Ky., in 1864.

At 17 he got a railroad job at Cayce, Ky., and later always boasted he would get his train through on time.

His final and fatal test came April 30, 1900, when he drove Old 382, the Cannon Ball, through a thick fog near Vaughn, Miss., and collided with a freight train.

Casey ordered his fireman to jump and stuck to his throttle, saving the passengers and losing his own life.

Reformed Church
News and Notes

In continuation of thought on the Heidelberg Catechism, celebrating its 400th anniversary this month, the Rev. Donald Edgar Hicks will preach on the topic: "Three Giant Steps" Sunday, Jan. 20, at the Woodstock Dutch Reformed Church.

The giant steps indicated are the realization of our sin, redemption by God's grace, and the path of thankfulness, involving complete life commitment. These are the areas of concern for Christian folks in coming to fulfillment and hope, as drawn out of biblical sources by the writers of the great confessional statement of the Reformed faith in 1563. Judged "heavy and theological sounding" by many who would skip through the frothy surface of life with little concern but that of fitting into the scene about them and answering the zoological compulsions of monetary living, Biblical faith presents a wider environment, a higher hope, and a deeper responsibility.

If western civilization is to survive, its citizens will have to learn to be involved in a higher loyalty than the pressure of traffic about them and the way to meet the next installments. If there is a gravity of paradise which can overcome and overrule the gravity of this ball of mud on which we live, and this is the gamble of the man of faith that there is, then these three giant steps are man's way to answer its pull—or, better, God's way for man.

A nursery is provided for little ones during worship. Sunday school meets in the church at 9:30 a. m. for primaries and up and in the annex for kindergartners. Communicants' Class with the minister and adult Bible class in the Upper Room at the same hour.

League Stages
Program on UN

The Woodstock League of Women Voters presented a United Nations program at its January meeting. The program covered such items as the UN Scene, Financing the UN, and Peacekeeping Machinery of the UN. Following the presentation there was a general discussion by the membership.

The purpose of the League's present study is to bring strong light on the accomplishments and limitations of the UN, as it is today, so that League members can form their own opinion based on the information. Fundamental to league study is the belief that a lack of facts limits both those who support the UN and those who oppose it.

Workshop members taking part in the program were: Jane Bromberg, chairman; Florence Hubbard, Hilda Cohen, Avis Gebert, Loretta Shekita, Mal Slovin. Assisting were Penny Earnest, Josette Ebbs, Kay Harris and Hilda Revzan.

The present study by the League of Women Voters on the UN is a national study item entitled, "Continued Support of the United Nations System and an Evaluation." However, the League interest dates back to 1920, and has covered such subjects as disarmament, strengthening of inter-American peace machinery and development of international law.

Tom Riley's Paintings
In New York Exhibit

Tom Riley of Woodstock is having his first New York show of his paintings and drawings. The show is being held at the Lynn-Kottler Gallery, 3 East 6th Street, New York city, from Jan. 27 to Feb. 10.

Well known in Woodstock art circles, Riley's works have been shown in Woodstock at the Artists Association Gallery, of which he is a member, and at the Polari Gallery.

The New York show marks the first time Riley has shown a collection of his works.

Policy on Private
OCS Transportation

Onteora Central Schools District has announced that parents or guardians of a child residing in the district, who desire that the child be transported to a private or parochial school during the 1963-64 school year, must submit a written request to the Board of Education not later than April 1, 1963.

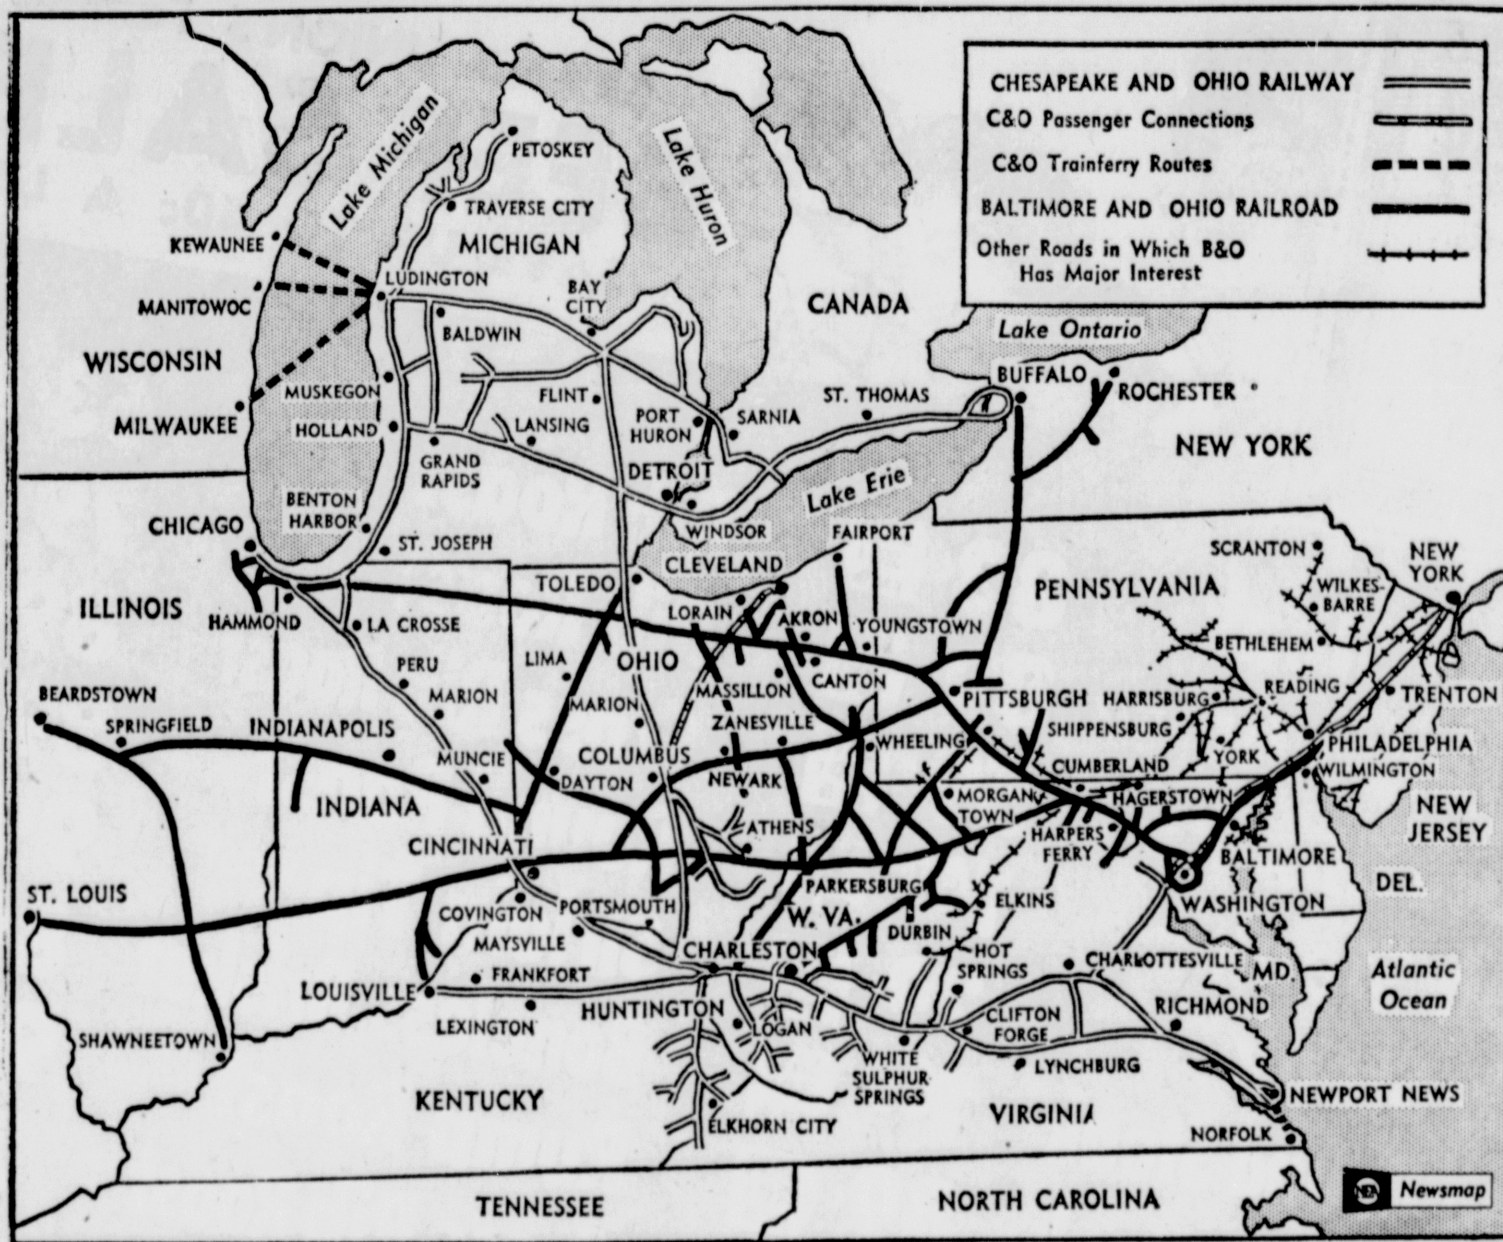

Children may be transported distances up to 10 miles at district expense, the distance being measured from the pupil's home to the school legally attended. This transportation for the parochial school is to the nearest school of the particular denomination. This also applies to private, elementary or secondary schools.

No Injuries Reported
In Mt. Marion Mishap

No one was reported injured early today in a minor traffic accident on Glasco Turnpike near Mt. Marion Four Corners, according to Kingston state police.

Troopers David Wachtel and George Hotelling reported the operators involved were Frank Thomas Galnam Jr., 34, of Shults Corners and Richard J. Ricketson, 21, of Ulster Avenue, Saugerties.

Troopers said Galnam was proceeding west on Glasco Turnpike when he was in collision with the side of Ricketson's 1959 sedan parked on the north shoulder.

$4.2 Billion Desired
For U.S. Space Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — A big boost in spending for the U.S. space agency was recommended today by President Kennedy to blaze a trail for American landing on the moon by this decade's end and put more hustle in the space race.

He asked Congress to approve $4.2 billion for fiscal 1964—$1.8 billion more than in 1963 and more than triple the amount spent in 1962.

"The space programs of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration will continue to expand as this nation strives to maintain a position of world leadership in the exploration and utilization of space," Kennedy said.

In addition, the administration sought Congress' okay for $184,880,000 spending by the Atomic Energy Commission for space projects—an increase of some $40.4 million over this year. This would cover a stepped up effort to develop nuclear powered rockets and advanced devices for supplying communications and other satellites with auxiliary nuclear power.

Thus, for all space projects by the two agencies, the administration sought approval for spending $4,384,880,000 in the coming fiscal year, compared with $2,544,449,000 in the current one.

In his budget message to Congress, Kennedy noted that defense spending and the growth in the space program had accounted for the major part of the increase in the budget since his administration took office. The President added that efforts are being concentrated on the continued development of the complex Apollo spacecraft—the vehicle slated for the lunar mission—and the giant advanced Saturn rocket needed to boost the Apollo to the moon.

He also said the budget provides for strong research efforts aimed at developing the technology needed for advanced space missions "including future manned explorations of Venus and Mars."

Declaring the recent Mariner fly-by of the planet Venus proves U.S. progress in unmanned space investigations, the President said that during the coming fiscal year, the development of geophysical, astronomical, meteorological and communications satellites would also continue. Kennedy recommended spending $2,713,000 for manned space flight, compared with an estimated $1,376,000 for the current year, and $347 million in fiscal 1962.

For unmanned investigations of space spending of $593 million is asked compared with $441 million this year.

Suicide Is Ruled In Beacon Case

A 41-year-old Beacon father of three children was found shot to death in his car parked off Brookway Road, Town of East Fishkill, at 11:15 a. m. Wednesday, and authorities later gave a finding of suicide.

The victim was Robert Miller, of 27 Rector Street, Beacon. Troopers said a note was found in the vehicle, indicating Miller had been despondent recently. He was missing from his home since 4 p. m. Tuesday, according to State Police Sergeant Andrew F. Lustyik, Fishkill.

Dr. Chester H. Golding, Dutchess County medical examiner, investigated with State Police Lt. Samuel J. Crodelle, Investigator Richard Cobey and Sergeant Lustyik, Troop K, Fishkill. Dr. Golding gave a ruling of suicide pending formal inquest.

Sergeant Lustyik said Miller's body was found by a close friend, Andrew Washington, of 78 Ferry Street, Beacon, who saw Miller's parked car and stopped to investigate. Troopers said Miller shot himself in the right temple with a pistol, which was found in the car.

The note was addressed to the victim's wife, troopers said.

Hollywood News, Views

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Mickey Mouse started the Walt Disney Studios, but it was Snow White that marked the beginning of an entertainment empire.

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," the first animated feature film, is marking its 25th anniversary. That was reason for a chat with Walt about the movie that remains his favorite.

"I guess I like it the best because I was so near to it," he reflected. "I directed some of the sequences and was in on every phase of it."

"You know something? It's still a darned good movie, even after 25 years."

Movie audiences agree. "Snow White" is drawing crowds in Europe right now and always returns a handsome profit on its many re-releases in this country. The reason for its continued success seems clear. It combined a universally appealing story with inspired characters, especially the dwarfs.

Termed in the trade as Disney's Folly, "Snow White" fooled the wisecracks and became an immediate success. It netted the producer a normal-size Oscar and seven little ones for his achievement. But repeating the success proved difficult.

"We made 'Pinocchio' and it went like this," said Walt, his hand indicating a nose-dive. "We made 'Bambi,' and it did the same. 'Disney's getting arty,' they said."

The next cartoon feature will be "The Sword in the Stone," a comedy about the young King Arthur. It will be out next fall. The studio now produces an animated feature only every three years. "I don't want to make any more than that," Walt explained. "You can fall on your nose with one of these features if you don't hit it right. 'Sword in the Stone' will cost $3.5 million to make. That's a big investment to get back."

$125 Million for Parks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Appropriations totaling $125,356,000 were requested today by President Kennedy for the National Park Service during the year beginning July 1.

The park service said the requests included $33,000 for construction of buildings and utilities at Saratoga National Historical Park at Saratoga Springs, N.Y. The president also asked for $12,000 for roads and trails at the Upstate New York site.

State Business Activity Shows November Gains

ALBANY — Business activity in New York State scored new gains in November 1962, matching the previous record high attained in May.

The state's preliminary Index of Business Activity, seasonally adjusted, rose one point from October to 150 (1947-49=100), three points higher than November 1961.

Better-than-seasonal performances in retail and service trades, as well as gains in transportation, communications and public activities, accounted for the rise.

The retail activity component of the index, seasonally adjusted, rose two points to a high of 147, eight points higher than a year earlier. The factory output component held steady at the October level of 143.

There was a slight decline in manufacturing employment, occurring almost entirely in the soft goods industries. Expanded production in transportation equipment firms boosted employment in durable goods industries.

An estimated 395,000 persons were unemployed in the state in November, 15,000 fewer than a year earlier. The November 1962 total represented an estimated 5 per cent (unadjusted) of the civilian work force, compared with the national rate of 5.33 per cent (also unadjusted).

Rochester continued to have the State's lowest unemployment rate—2.7 per cent. Buffalo, 6.8

Chamber Favors Easing Penalties Of Strike Law

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York State Chamber of Commerce urges easing of the job-loss penalty in the state's Condon-Wadlin Law that prohibits strikes by public employees.

The chamber issued a statement Wednesday urging that the Legislature soften the requirement that violators of the strike ban be fired.

Calling the penalty "too rigidly prescribed," the chamber urged penalties like those in the civil service law which range from a reprimand to dismissal.

The statement, however, urged that "the principle of prohibiting strikes by public employees be reaffirmed."

Bush Introduces Tenure Bill for Civil Employees

Senator E. Ogden Bush, Delaware, and Assemblyman Russell Selkirk of Cobleskill, have introduced legislation in the State Legislature which would change the present provisions of section 108 of the civil service law by substituting automatic loss of tenure for the present provisions of the law which require automatic dismissal for public employees who strike.

Under the proposed legislation, the public employee would be placed in the same status as a new employee and would thus be required to develop tenure without the benefit of any period of previous employment.

The law, commonly referred to as the Condon-Wadlin Act, has been in effect since 1958, but it has not been effective in preventing strikes by public employees. The 1962 strike by New York City teachers is an example of its ineffectiveness.

Senator Bush represents the 34th Senatorial District embracing Ulster, Greene, Delaware and Sullivan.

In commenting on the bill, Senator Bush and Assemblyman Selkirk said, "There are many who feel that the present provisions of the law are too stringent in requiring automatic firing of striking employees, and public officials are reluctant to go that far in disciplining striking employees."

The proposed legislation, which carries an immediate effective date, was requested by the Schenectady County Farm Bureau to carry out recommendations of the New York State Farm Bureau's legislative program for 1963.

Car Stuck at Switch Delays Freight Train

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A woman motorist drove half a mile on a railroad track, then got stuck in a switch and delayed a 100-car freight train.

Mazie Wells of Burbank said she got on the tracks at a crossing Wednesday. A track supervisor saw her car jounce by at 25 miles an hour, followed by a freight train going in the same direction. He threw a switch that flagged down the train.

Police said the woman told them: "I thought this was a road."

She was not cited.

Trio Escapes to West

BERLIN (AP) — Three East Germans escaped into West Berlin early today through the triple row of barbed wire on the city's western border.

West Berlin police said they were not notified by Communist guards and therefore no details of their escape were revealed.

per cent, was the only major area with substantial unemployment.

SEES FEDERAL COOPERATION—Michigan's Gov. Romney

Michigan's Gov. George Romney, who is shown at a press conference in Washington after a breakfast meeting with his state's congressional delegation, told newsmen his primary aim was to keep informed of federal programs and to seek cooperation on matters dealing with the state. Romney is Michigan's first Republican governor in 14 years. (AP Wirephoto)

Mrs. Van Loan Is Acquitted of ABC Violation

A trial jury deliberated about 10 minutes Wednesday night and acquitted Mrs. Esther Van Loan, proprietor of Van Loan's Corner Rest, Port Ewen, of a charge of selling beer to a minor in violation of the ABC law.

The trial was held before Justice of the Peace John O. Beaver and a jury of three men and three women in the Town of Esopus hall. John Schick was attorney for Mrs. Van Loan and Assistant District Attorney James Murray, Ellenville, represented the People.

The charge was lodged last July by State Police Investigator James Kaljian, who at that time was a trooper. Information was based, authorities said, on a statement made by a 16-year-old Connelly boy, who claimed he and other youths obtained beer at the restaurant at Port Ewen.

At the time the boy was questioned, Kaljian was investigating a fire in a wooded area near Port Ewen.

Only around 3 per cent of Florida's 140-150,000 alcoholics can be found in "skid row."

Dental Treatment For Peacetime Vets

Peacetime veterans are eligible for dental treatment under certain conditions, according to Arthur T. Noren, manager of the Albany Veterans Administration Regional Office.

Under a law effective August 14, 1962, peacetime veterans with service-connected dental conditions which existed when they were discharged from active service, may be authorized any dental treatment found to be reasonably necessary for a one-time correction of the condition, provided they apply within one year after their separation from active duty.

Mr. Noren pointed out, however, that if the service-connected dental condition was the result of an accidental injury incurred in the line of duty, the veteran is not required to apply for dental treatment within one year from the date he was discharged from the service, and treatment for such conditions is not limited to a one-time correction.

Applications filed prior to August 14, 1962, are not valid for this treatment, Noren emphasized, and new applications must be submitted. Veterans who believe they are eligible for dental treatment under the new law and desire assistance in applying should visit or call the Contact Division at the Veterans Administration Albany Regional Office located at the Westgate Shopping Center in Albany.

SCHOLASTIC CORNER

By ED PALLADINO

Not being an "Old Timer," we are still looking with anticipation toward tonight's annual dinner of the Kingston OTBA. We didn't have the privilege of observing Al Flanagan in action, remember seeing Bill Lohman pitch for the Giants and have known Fred Davi as one of the best baseball promoters in these parts.

However, we have been writing about the exploits of Mike Ferraro since he was just a youngster in high school. There have been many excellent athletes in Kingston but we don't see how any of them could have been a finer gentleman than Ferraro.

MIKE'S FIRST LOVE

Ferraro was a better than average basketball player. He was selected as the DUSO League "Player of the Year" for 1961-62. He only played one year of football but was a good pass receiver and gave Coach Bill Burke some invaluable help from the fullback slot.

But, it has always been baseball where Mike has shown the greatest potential. It is his first love, despite his abilities in the other sports.

Coach Al Gruner has a soft spot in his heart for Ferraro, and who can blame him? Mike was a starter on the KHS baseball team for three seasons, playing shortstop and hitting cleanup most of the time.

Coach George Belcanoff cited Mike as the "guts" of the Kingston squad. "He's destined to become a great one," is the way the veteran NFA coach described Ferraro. There was no surprise among those close to Mike when he signed a bonus contract with the talented New York Yankees.

A YANKEE FAN

Ferraro has rooted for the almost always World Champions and he turned down several other offers, some better, to sign with the New York club.

We can't predict whether or not this lad will ever make it to the big time. If determination alone were enough, it wouldn't take him long to make the jump. However, we do feel that several seasons from now, when the OTBA inducts some members into the Kingston Hall of Fame, Ferraro will be one of them. He has the "can't miss sign" about him.

WONDERFUL WES

Roosevelt High School fans are up in arms over a recent article in an area weekly. The columnist called Wes Bialosunkia, the talented sharpshooter of the Presidents, a "gunner."

Though we haven't observed "Bailey" on the hardwood this season, we saw enough of him for two years to know there is nothing farther from the truth than to call him a gunner.

All this senior star is doing is averaging better than 30 points a game, as well as being one of the top rebounders on the team and also a leader in assists. When a player shoots close to 50 per cent from the floor, how can he be called a gunner?

THAT SAUGERTIES GAME

We are aware that the night Wes collected 40 points against Saugerties, he did shoot more than usual, especially in the fourth period. However, he was near a school and league record with a few minutes left in the game and his teammates did "feed" him. After all, how else would he have a chance at the mark unless he got some help?

Basketball today, though still a team game, is such that unless a high school team scores 60 points or better, it will lose more often than it wins.

With Bialosunkia averaging more than 30 a game, it means the other four players at Roosevelt have to do just as well collectively. We are sure if they did all the shooting and Wes all the feeding, they wouldn't be scoring as much as their ace and the club would suffer.

COLLEGE PROSPECT

A cage quintet with a shooter such as Bialosunkia, will win many games if the rest of the players cooperate. There are all the signs that Roosevelt is playing good team ball. The record shows it.

There is no doubt that Bialosunkia will be hounded by several colleges before too much longer. He's a great prospect, and, we are happy to say, a well behaved lad as well as a talented one. We are also sure that any coach in the area would be more than happy to put him on their club, sight unseen.

Those who think Wes does nothing but gun the ball are all wrong. He does shoot a lot, but, then so did Joe Uhl and so does Barry Kramer of NYU. We'd like to have any of them on any team we coached.

Sims Captures Mile Race, 2nd In Two Mile Event

Jimmy Sims, former Kingston High track star, scored a victory in the one mile run and a second spot in the two mile race last weekend as his Cornell teammates won a meet from Dartmouth, 64-45.

Sims and teammate Jim Byard accounted for 16 of the Big Red points. Jim covered the mile in 4:28.1, beating Byard for the top spot. In the two mile race, the tables were reversed with Byard finishing in 10:19.6.

Now a junior at the Ithaca School, Sims has been a leading runner the past two seasons.

Pizzeria Routs Chevies, 79-53

Tony's Pizzeria held Byrne Chevies scoreless in the first four minutes of play, then went on to rout them 79-53 in the YMCA "A" basketball league Wednesday night.

KHS Cagers May Set Dubious Mark Friday

By ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

Kingston High cagers will be in a position to set a dubious record Friday night when they host Middletown at the Kate Walton Field House.

In the six previous years John J. Gilligan has coached the KHS varsity, none of his teams ever lost more than four straight games and that has happened on only two other occasions.

Back in 1958-59, the year sophomore Joe Uhl was injured, Kingston dropped four straight contests, with the total difference being only 10 points. Last year, the Maroon quintet finished with four consecutive setbacks, including one in the sectional tournament.

With only a 3-4 record to show for seven games, this

Oneonta State Shades Albany

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tom Nuttall scored a last-second basket Wednesday night to give Oneonta State a 40-39 basketball victory over Albany State in overtime.

The score was knotted at 36-36 at the end of regulation play. Albany went ahead, 38-38, with four seconds remaining in the overtime period, setting the stage for Nuttall's heroics.

Nuttall led all scorers with 18 points. Dick Crossett scored 16 points for Albany.

Ithaca pleased its home-court fans by romping past Utica College, 79-56. Don Fazio scored 14 points for Ithaca. Ed Stores paced the losers with 19 points.

In the only other game last night involving Upstate college teams, Alfred Tech outscored Geneseo State, 56-44, at Geneseo.

Eastern Speed Routs West in All Star Game

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—The East congratulated itself with utmost justification today on its 115-108 victory over the West in the National Basketball Association's annual All-Star game.

Many called it an upset. But, the way things turned out, this was no upset. Someone just picked the wrong favorite. And it irritated the East something awful.

What happened was that Oscar Robertson, Bill Russell and a host of less renowned pros of the East simply ran, passed and scored the pantaloons off the West.

"I never had an easier game," said the East's coach, Red Auerbach.

The East opened the scoring on a basket by Tom Heinsohn of Auerbach's Boston Celtics and was never tied nor behind from there on.

At halftime it was 36-50, and the score was much closer than the contest. For example, 3 minutes and 20 seconds before that buzzer the West's great Elgin Baylor had scored his first and only field goal of the entire first half.

Robertson went on to lead the East in scoring with 21 points. Russell, who had 19, bottled up the West attack and won the Most-Valuable-Player award for the evening.

The shining light for the West was Bob Pettit, with a game high of 25 points. This was the veteran St. Louis Hawks' 10th All-Star game.

The thing that shocked the local boosters among the crowd of 14,838 was the frigid performance of Baylor and Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers.

Baylor sank but 4 out of 15 field goal attempts, and 9 of 13 free throws for a total of 17 points. West hit on 5 out of 15 field goal tries and 3 out of 4 free shots for 13 points.

The West's coach, Fred Schaue of the Lakers, observed: "Bill Russell dominated both boards. We did a good job on Wilt Chamberlain."

Browns to Need Big Lineman Says Collier

CLEVELAND (AP)—Blanton Collier, new head coach of the Cleveland Browns, says the club has some weaknesses, but that he hasn't had time to give much thought to personnel.

"We need big interior linemen, a big running back and good receivers," he said Wednesday after he was named to succeed Paul Brown, who had coached the team since it was organized in 1946. "It remains to be seen if we have enough on hand or if we have to do some trading."

Collier's appointment was announced at a news conference by Arthur B. Modell, Browns' president, who bought the National Football League club for $4 million in 1961.

Modell also announced that Harold Sauerbrel, a former Cleveland sportswriter, would succeed Brown as general manager. Sauerbrel, who has been with the Browns since 1954, has been serving as business manager of the club.

Collier announced that basically he plans to have the quarterback call the plays, a major change from the Brown regime. Brown's practice of sending in all the plays from the bench had been criticized by the fans and some of the Browns' quarterbacks.

Collier, 36, was promoted from backfield coach under a three-year contract at an unannounced salary.

May Re-schedule NFL Disputed Exhibition

DENVER (AP)—An Air Force Academy spokesman says a Sept. 8 pre-season game at Falcon Stadium between the Detroit Lions and the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League will be re-scheduled if possible.

Announcement of the scheduling of the game Tuesday brought angry words from Calvin Kunz, president of the rival American Football League's Denver Broncos. The Broncos have their season opener slated for the same day at Denver, about 60 miles north of the Academy.

Robin Roberts Top Comeback

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Robin Roberts, who hit the end of the trail with the Philadelphia Phillies and then was dropped before he threw a pitch for the New York Yankees, was named today as the athlete who made the greatest comeback of the year 1962.

Roberts, who found new life with the Baltimore Orioles and wound up second in earned run averages in the American League, edged another baseball veteran who sprang back from a bleak campaign, Stan Musial, in the annual Associated Press poll.

The Oklahoma football team, bouncing back to an Orange Bowl berth, took third spot. The San Francisco Giants, given up for dead before they battled back to win the National League pennant from the Los Angeles Dodgers in the last inning of the last playoff game, were voted fourth.

The University of Southern California Trojans, national football champions and leaders of a West Coast gridiron comeback, got the fifth spot.

Roberts gained 114 first place votes and a total of 506 points, based on a 3-2-1 point count, in the voting by 292 sports writers and sportscasters throughout the nation.

Musial was named at the top of 90 ballots, and had 418 points. Oklahoma was the top choice of 42 voters and got 368 points. The Giants and the Trojans had eight first place votes each, with San Francisco edging the collegians by 76 to 56 points.

Roberts, now 36, was sold to the Yankees after a dreadful 1-10 campaign with the Phils in 1961. He had 20 wins for six straight years for Philadelphia.

The Yankees let him go on May 8 without letting him pitch a ball in a regular game.

It looked like the end, but the Orioles signed him on May 21, and he was superb for them all year, although he finished with a 10-9 mark. Roberts pitched well almost every time out and his 2.78 earned run average was second only to Detroit's Hank Aguirre.

Palmer, Player Early Picks in Crosby Tourney

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Arnold Palmer and Gary Player, respective winners of the year's first two tournaments and firing sub-par practice rounds here, were early favorites as Bing Crosby's 22nd National Pro-Amateur golf tournament opened today.

Neither Palmer, leading money winner in the last decade of golf, nor Player, the sharp-shooting star from South Africa, has captured this $50,000 event previously. Yet both are currently scoring far better than Doug Ford, the New Yorker who won here last year in a one-hole playoff against Joe Campbell.

Niagara River Docks Are Battered by Ice

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—Docking facilities and other shore properties took a beating today from a massive ice jam in the Niagara River.

The ice caused an eight-hour curtailment in power production at the Ontario Power plant on the Canadian shore Wednesday as it clogged the plant's intake tubes and forebay.

Production was normal however, at the Mammoth Niagara Power Project, although the New York State Power Authority reported that ice was building up in front of the intakes.

The jam caused more than $10,000 damage to the Maid of the Mist excursion facilities on the Canadian Shore. The 170-foot sea-going tug Good News, which broke away from its moorings in Queenston, Ont., on Tuesday, still was locked in ice near Lewiston. Ice mountains as high as 70 feet were reported.

Farmers Are Criticized About Radioactivity

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—Director George Michael of the State Division of Food and Drug, has upbraided Massachusetts farmers for refusing to implement safety measures when radioactivity in milk reached high levels last fall.

Michael said Wednesday "it was a disappointment to me" when farmers balked at his request to use stored feed for cattle rather than allow their stocks to feed in open pasture lands.

The director told the annual meeting of the Milk Inspectors Association his division was alarmed at rising radioactive iodine counts in milk and had "quietly" asked the farmers to effect safety precautions.

"We want to avoid a stampede" such as occurred in the 1959 cranberry scare, Michael explained, consequently his warning was not made public.

Fire Calls Wednesday

Firemen were called at 4:55 p. m. Wednesday to check fires in two trash cans at the rear of 60 Meadow Street, and a call at 6:59 p. m. was for a break in a water heating system in a house at 52 Van Buren Street, owned by A. R. Harrison, Route 2, Box 219, Kingston. The break caused a heavy issuance of steam in the building. Units from Cornell and Central stations answered the first call and Central, Wiltwyck and Wicks units responded to the latter.

Man, 95, Dies in Fire

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Charles Tribu, about 95, perished today in a fire that apparently started from an overturned kerosene lamp or space heater, firemen said.

Tribu was found on the floor of his blazing first floor bedroom at 94 Second Street. The fire was confined to the bedroom.

Planners Hear Swartzmiller in Rochester Town

W. Dale Swartzmiller, regional supervisor of the New York State Department of Commerce, was the speaker Wednesday night at a meeting of the Town of Rochester Planning Board, held at Accord Firehouse.

John Scribano, chairman of the Town of Rochester Planning Board, presided at the meeting. The benefits of town planning were outlined by Swartzmiller who discussed "good planning" with those present. A portion of the meeting was devoted to a question and answer period in which Swartzmiller answered questions on planning and zoning.

At the meeting which was attended by some 40 interested residents of the area, were also Merton Blanchard, chairman of the Town of Marletown planning board which is in its early stages of operation, and Joseph Babiarz, chairman of the Kerhonkson Area Chamber of Commerce Industrial Committee and also chairman of the Rondout Area Development Corporation which is interested in the industrial development of the Rondout Valley area.

Among the matters discussed was the advantage of highways to supplement existing roads. One of the important connections, it was suggested, would be the route connecting Route 209 and Route 28, running north and south which would eliminate the necessity of traffic coming south to Kingston and then proceeding out 209.

Chairman Scribano announced the next meeting would be held on Wednesday, Jan. 30, at which time there would be an opportunity to discuss matters on which limited discussion had been held at this meeting. The public is invited to attend the next meeting January 30.

Money Is Stolen From Machines In Restaurant

Local police today began probe of the theft of unknown sums of money from cigarette and candy vending machines and a juke box in the Promise Land Restaurant, 240 Foxhall Avenue.

Entrance was gained through the breaking of a rear glass. The person or persons, who committed the burglary, left through a side door. Detectives said keys to the machines were taken from a cash register, but no money was reported taken from the latter. Police were told that the place had been entered between midnight and 7 a. m. today.

Wawarsing Store Is Burglarized Wednesday

Several rifles of unknown value were stolen from a show window of the Trading Post on Route 209, Wawarsing, sometime Wednesday night, after thieves smashed a large plate glass window in front of the establishment.

Ellenville Trooper Walter Hubert reported the proprietor of the store, Minnie Sussman, discovered the damage and theft of the guns and notified troopers. Investigators Charles Teelon and George Dana are investigating.

Trooper Hubert said the thieves, after smashing the pane of glass, reached inside and removed the rifles from a rack. An inventory is underway to determine the number of guns missing from the store, troopers said.

Bids Rocky Raise Age

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP)—The Youth Committee of the New York State Grange is urging Gov. Rockefeller to use his influence to raise the state's minimum drinking age from 18 to 21.

The six-member committee, which represents 15,000 teen-age members of the farmers' organization, has expressed its views in a telegram to the governor, Russell S. Curtis of Cazenovia, master of the State Grange, says Curtis said the committee, in a resolution, called on Rockefeller "to provide the leadership necessary to put our laws on a par with neighboring states." Those states have a minimum drinking age of 21.

Brazilian Boy Is Guest at Central School

NEW PALTZ — Silvio de Albuquerque Mota of Fortaleza, Ceara will complete classes as an exchange student at the New Paltz Central School Friday.

The 17-year old student has been studying at the local school since Jan. 3 as part of the annual youth forum program.

A student of language and social science, the youth plans to enter a diplomatic career. He is very interested in world affairs.

Search Underway For 5 Paintings Taken in Caracas

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Troops and police began a building-to-building search today of the Communist-infested Central University for five French Impressionist masterpieces stolen by gun-waving young terrorists who invaded a Caracas art museum.

Authorities believed students from the university made off with the paintings, on loan from France and insured for an estimated half a million dollars. Central University is a hotbed of Castro sympathizers.

The paintings were seized Wednesday in a daylight raid by a band of about 15 including two teen-age girls. One of the girls shot and seriously wounded a high school student who defied the raiders.

The gang shouted that they were taking the paintings to let France know that they opposed the Venezuelan government of President Romulo Betancourt. They said they would return the art works, but officials feared the paintings might be damaged.

The stolen paintings were identified as "Lilies in a Copper Vase" by Van Gogh, painted in 1886; a 1929 still life by Picasso; an 1889 still life by Gauguin; "Still Life With Pears" 1925 by Braque, and "The Bathers" 1890 by Cezanne.

Has New Factory Plans

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (AP)—Endicott Johnson Corp. hopes to replace its sprawling network of shoe factories in this area with two or three modern complexes at a cost of $30-$40 million.

President P. J. Casella said consultants had been hired to study the feasibility of abandoning the 35 to 40 buildings to improve efficiency and increase competitive ability.

He said that, although this would mean more automation, he believed the present work force of 12,000 would be increased.

The most modern of the present buildings were erected in the 1920s, and the oldest date back to the late 1800s.

erated by Edward Bernard, which questioned Silvio de Albuquerque Mota about his native Brazil. Silvio, besides answering the panel's questions, brought along several color slides depicting many aspects of Brazilian life. The slides ranged from the indigenous fishing populace along the coast, to the fascinating, modern architecture of Brasilia, new man-made capital of this Portuguese-speaking country.

Silvio, at the opening of the assembly, wore a costume native to the Brazilian cowboy. The outfit featured heavy leather pants and pancho, with protective boots. The outfit is designed to guard the cowboys from the harsh dense brush which is prolific in Brazil.

During his stay in New Paltz, he is residing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Parks Glenn at 6 Prospect Street.

-6 Minny's Warmest Yet

East Is in Path Of Warming Trend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Subzero cold persisted in sections of the Midwest and Northeast today but a warming trend appeared on the way for most of the eastern half of the nation.

The below zero zone in the Midwest was confined to the extreme eastern Dakotas, Minnesota, western half of Wisconsin, northeastern Nebraska, most of Iowa and in parts of northern Illinois.

Lone Rock Warm's Up

In Lone Rock, Wis., one of the nation's coldest spots during the severe spell of frigid weather in the last week, the mercury made a rapid rise Wednesday after dropping to -37 in the morning. It was only -3 at 11 p. m. but four hours later, the mercury had dropped to 26 below, averaging a descent of nearly eight degrees an hour. It was -15 in nearby Madison.

In Minnesota, a reading of -25 was reported in International Falls and -10 in Duluth. Minneapolis with six below, had its warmest morning this week.

In the Northeast, lowest temperatures appeared to be confined to Maine, with -23 in Old Town, -21 in Millinocket and -18 in Montpelier, Vt. The cold air also swept into New York State Wednesday, dropping temperatures to subzero marks, with records for the date in some cities. But readings generally were above zero this morning.

Outside the cold belts, temperatures were mostly in the teens to the 20s in interior sections of the country. They were in the 30s and 40s along the Pacific Coast and most of the central and southern sections of the Atlantic Coast.

70s in Florida

Most of Southern California, southeast Texas, and the Gulf coastal region had marks into the 50s, with 70-degree readings in southern Florida. The moderating trend continued in the Southeast with early morning lows mostly in the middle and low 20s in Tennessee, north and central parts of Alabama and Georgia and most of the Carolinas. The upper 30s were reported in a few spots in northwest Florida.

Snow was indicated during the day from northern Idaho into northern Nevada, Utah and Colorado eastward through Montana, the Dakotas and southern Minnesota. The snow belt also was expected to cover areas across eastern Wyoming, eastern Nebraska and extreme northwestern Missouri.
